Searching For Vietnam Selected Writings On Vietnamese Culture And Society:

Searching for Vietnam A. Terry Rambo, 2005 Volume 9 of the Kyoto Area Studies on Asia brings together the author's selected writings about Vietnam from the past forty years. The book opens with an autobiographical account of his history as a Vietnam researcher that sets each of the selections into the context of the time and situation in which it was written. The writings are grouped into five topical sections: cultural history, religion, and cultural ecology; the Vietnamese village; the impact of the war on South Vietnamese society; Vietnam's development prospects in its reform period; and problems of development in Vietnam's mountains.

Vietnamese Stories for Language Learners Tri C. Tran, Tram Le, 2017-12-19
Vietnamese Stories for Language Learners: a language learning experience for beginner to intermediate students of the Vietnamese language. Nothing introduces students and cultural enthusiasts to a language and people better than stories. Intended for Vietnamese language students or heritage learners, the stories in this volume present the everyday vocabulary and grammar in use in Vietnam today. Forty folk stories have been edited and simplified for learning purposes and are presented in parallel Vietnamese and English versions to facilitate language learning. These delightful Vietnamese folktales immediately animate the culture, offering readers a glimpse of the social, cultural, and religious aspects of Vietnamese society in bygone eras. The English translations allow readers who are not yet studying the language to experience the wisdom and humor in these traditional well-loved stories. Online audio recordings in Vietnamese help students improve their pronunciation and inflection and introduce readers to the uniquely Vietnamese story of storytelling. Discussion questions, vocabulary, and cultural notes are provided at the end of each story. All media content is accessible on the Tuttle Publishing website.

State-Society Interaction in Vietnam Huynh Thi Phuong Linh, 2016 This book, based on anthropological research on local irrigation management in the Mekong Delta, sheds light on state-society interactions at the interface between bureaucratic and informal areas. Data from ethnographic case studies was framed abductively by an institutional bricolage approach (Cleaver 2012) and state power (Goebel 2011). The study goes beyond an institution's process and individual bargaining to argue that local irrigation management is guided by the co-evolution between the state and local actors. It is the everyday dialogue that, in the co-existence of the hierarchical state management structure and the space of local flexibility, officially and unofficially refines the local practices. Series: ZEF Development Studies Vol. 29 Subject: Politics, Environmental Studies, Asian Studies, Agriculture.

The Oxford Handbook of Buddhist Practice Paula Kane Robinson Arai, Kevin Trainor, 2022 Foregrounds the impact of embodiment in Buddhism. Highlights the diversity and fluidity of Buddhist identities. The most comprehensive available volume on Buddhist practice. Book jacket.

Reforming Vietnamese Higher Education Nhai Thi Nguyen, Ly Thi Tran, 2019-11-01 This book deepens readers' conceptual understanding of and provides practical insights into Vietnam's higher education reforms. Globalisation has had profound impacts on higher education worldwide, creating transnational linkages and junctures as well as disjunctures. At the same time, it has generated fluidities, hybridities, and mobilities Within the postcolonial context of Vietnam it is imperative to identify the unique global traits that characterise the Vietnamese higher education system The book focuses specifically on key aspects of culture and values that are decisive to the reform of Vietnamese higher education under the forces of globalisation It critically examines how global forces have shaped and reshaped Vietnam's higher education landscape At the same time the book explores local demands on Vietnamese higher education and deciphers how higher education institutions are responding to globalisation internationalisation and local demands Based on empirical research theoretical approaches and the experiences of researchers from Vietnam and overseas it addresses critical perspectives on the aspects fundamental to the reform of Vietnamese higher education and outlines viable paths for the future Bangsa and Umma Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2011

Having experienced a large scale reorganization of social order over the past decade people of the Malay world have struggled to position themselves They have been classified and have classified themselves with categories as bangsa nation ethnic group and umma Islamic network In connection with these key concepts this study explores a variety of dimensions of these and other people grouping classifications which also include Malayu Jawi and Paranakan The book examines how these categories played a significant part in the colonial and post colonial periods in areas ranging from Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines It demonstrates the extent to which shifting social conditions interact with the contours of group identity This is a collaborative work by scholars based in the US Japan Malaysia and Australia Understanding the genealogy of people grouping concepts provides valuable insight into the mechanics of power relations and how the agency of cultural identification constructs the continuity and the contentious in the political world Pacific Affairs Vol 85 No 4 December 2012

Politics of Ethnic Classification in Vietnam Masako Itō, 2013 Officially the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a total of 54 ethnic groups including the majority Kinh and 53 ethnic minority groups This book examines the history of the ethnic group determination process highlighting some of the challenges the official policies pose to both the state and the affected peoples Vietnam has proudly embraced its multiethnic identity seeking the equality of all ethnic groups in the interests of national unity Yet among other things it appears that the total number of ethnic categories was rather arbitrarily determined initially and then fiercely defended by influential politicians and academics Furthermore the extensive field surveys reveal that ethnic policies are frequently manipulated at the regional and local levels in pursuit of economic interests and not infrequently to the detriment of those they were intended to benefit Series Kyoto Area Studies on Asia Vol 23 Professor Ito has succeeded admirably in juxtaposing her study of official documents interviews with officials and academics and the results of her own excellent first hand field work to demonstrate why ethnic classification in Vietnam has been far more a political than a scientific project Her book deserves to be read not only by those interested in Vietnam but also by others interested in the politics of ethnicity more generally Pacific Affairs Vol 87 No 4 December 2014 The Reinvention of Distinction Van Nguyen-Marshall, Lisa B. Welch Drummond, Danièle Bélanger, 2011-11-17 This pioneering collection brings together an international group of scholars to explore the Vietnamese middle class From the leisure pursuits of the colonial middle class to the impact of the new urban rich on landscape of the countryside this interdisciplinary volume explores the ways in which middle classness has been practiced in a wide range of contexts throughout the 20th century and into the 21st In addition to offering insights into how middle classness was and is constituted and negotiated this collection illuminates the cultural and social conditions of two distinctive periods in Vietnamese history Three historical chapters consider how middle class status was experienced and displayed under French colonialism and in 1960s republican Vietnam These chapters offer examinations of middle classness through recreation consumption and associational life Six contemporary studies examine the modes of experimentation and practice within middle class urban Vietnam Still a sensitive topic politically the contemporary middle class nascent but increasingly powerful is exerting a strong impact on the shape of contemporary society and culture as well as on urban and rural landscapes This volume offers a series of studies which critically interrogate the practices of those who engage in or aspire to urban middle class lifestyles in Vietnam both in the past and in the present

Gods, Heroes, and Ancestors Anh Q. Tran, 2018 Though a minority religion in Vietnam Christianity has been a significant presence in the country since its arrival in the sixteenth century Anh Q. Tran offers the first English translation of the recently discovered 1752 manuscript Tam Gi o Chu Vong The Errors of the Three Religions Structured as a dialogue between a Christian priest and a Confucian scholar this anonymously authored manuscript paints a rich picture of the three traditional Vietnamese religions Confucianism Buddhism and Daoism The work explains and evaluates several religious beliefs customs and rituals of eighteenth century Vietnam many of which are still in practice today In addition it contains a trove of information on the challenges and struggles that Vietnamese Christian converts had to face in following the new faith Besides its great historical value for studies in Vietnamese religion language and culture Gods Heroes and Ancestors raises complex issues concerning the encounter between Christianity and other religions Christian missions religious pluralism and interreligious dialogue

Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia Nam-Kook Kim, 2016-04-15 Globalization and increased migration have brought both new opportunities and new tensions to traditional East Asian societies Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia draws together a wide range of distinguished local scholars to discuss multiculturalism and the changing nature of social identity in East Asia Regional specialists review specific events and situations in China Korea Japan Thailand Vietnam Singapore Taiwan Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines to provide a focus on life as it is lived at the local level whilst also tracing macro discourses on the national issues affected by multiculturalism and identity The contributors look at the uneven multicultural development across these different countries and how to bridge the gap between locality and universality They examine how ethnic majorities and minorities can achieve individual rights exert civic responsibility and explain how to construct a deliberative framework to make sustainable democracy possible This book considers the emergence of a new cross national network designed to address multicultural challenges and imagines an East Asian community with shared values of individual dignity and multicultural diversity With strong empirical support it puts forward a regulative ideal by which a new paradigm for multicultural coexistence and regional cooperation can be realized

On the Frontiers of Climate and Environmental Change Ole Bruun,Thorkil Casse,2013-03-29 This book is intended to fill a gap in climate change literature by providing a comprehensive regional study and identifying the overall adaptation challenges in a real life context The way in which possible climate impacts interact with a range of other challenges in agriculture forestry disaster planning health care general economic development and common livelihoods are presented and it is argued that greater realism and broader vision are needed in order to address the climate challenge For instance unsuitable land use changes in both coastal and highland regions may increase the vulnerability of rural people many of whom are already living on the fringes The author s also state s that depending on context it may be pertinent to address short term and unsustainable resource use irregularities in local land management ineffective governance and social inequality which are all likely to aggravate the impact of external climate and weather Not least it is imperative to integrate general environmental management with any climate change adaptation effort

Beyond the Knowledge Trap Thomas Menkhoff,2011 Based on the success of the World Scientific publication Governing and Managing Knowledge edited by Thomas Menkhoff Hans Dieter Evers and Chay Yue Wah in 2005 this unique volume presents 16 new theoretical practical papers on the strategic aspects of developing knowledge based economies with case studies from South Korea Singapore Malaysia Thailand Vietnam Indonesia Philippines and Uzbekistan A key question which the book seeks to answer is what Asian policy makers and leaders in government economy and society can do to further enhance learning and capability formation so as to foster sustainable development in an increasingly globalized world It addresses the politico cultural and socio economic challenges of effectively managing both knowledge resources and coping with the great digital divide created by globalization continuous technology innovations and rapid external change A key objective of the publication is to enable latecomers in the knowledge race to understand some of the critical success factors of sustainable knowledge based development and what it takes to build a resilient knowledge based economy

The End of Personal Rule in Indonesia Ayako Masuhara,2015 Motivated by on the ground experiences during Indonesia s period of political turmoil in the early 2000s following the collapse of the Suharto regime this book systematically explains the structure of the Suharto regime while revealing its political dynamism The primary goal is to account for the transformations that Suharto s personal rule underwent during 30 years in power and explain its end The book focuses on the personal rule system that Suharto employed analyzing its transition and collapse in a groundbreaking thesis that draws on archival materials from major political institutions as well as interviews with some of the key political protagonists The concept co opting type personal rule is proposed to address the following questions What concept can best capture the Suharto regime and the diverse array of personal rule systems and better explain the characteristics of each type How can we analyze personal rule regimes that end in relatively peaceful transitions rather than revolution or violent coup Thesis Series Kyoto Area Studies on Asia Vol 24 Subject Asian Studies Indonesian Studies Politics Defend and Befriend John Southard, 2014-07-11 Defend and Befriend is the first comprehensive study of Americans assigned to Combined Action Platoons in Vietnam Tracing the development as well as the implementation of the program author John Southard intertwines the experiences of enlisted Marines and corpsmen with an examination of the colonels and generals in charge

Misalliance Edward Miller, 2013-04-01 Diem's alliance with Washington has long been seen as a Cold War relationship gone bad undone by either American arrogance or Diem's stubbornness Edward Miller argues that this misalliance was more than just a joint effort to contain communism It was also a means for each side to shrewdly pursue its plans for nation building in South Vietnam Myths and Realities Yoshifumi Tamada, 2009 This study now in paperback traces the root of Thailand's current political instability back to the 1990s It challenges the prevailing view that the nation's democratization process during the decade was led by the active middle class The book argues that the key role played by the middle class was moderation rather than promotion of democracy The middle class achieved discursive power after the May 1992 incident and prevented the numerical majority of the population rural residents and urban lower class people from gaining the hegemony With competing forces in Thai politics under the microscope and with a particular focus on passive political actors Myths and Realities shows that the appeasement of the opponents of democratization is no less crucial than the emergence or empowerment of its proponents The Japanese original of Myths and Realities won an Ohira Masayoshi Memorial Prize in 2003 Development Monks in Northeast Thailand Phinit Lāpthanānon, 2012 Co published with Trans Pacific Press Australia

Cultural Diversity, Heritage and Human Rights Michele Langfield, William Logan, Mairead Nic Craith, 2009-12-04 This theoretically innovative anthology investigates the problematic linkages between conserving cultural heritage maintaining cultural diversity defining and establishing cultural citizenship and enforcing human rights It is the first publication to address the notions of cultural diversity cultural heritage and human rights in one volume Heritage provides the basis of humanity's rich cultural diversity While there is a considerable literature dealing separately with cultural diversity cultural heritage and human rights this book is distinctive and has contemporary relevance in focusing on the intersection between the three concepts Cultural Diversity Heritage and Human Rights establishes a fresh approach that will interest students and practitioners alike and on which future work in the heritage field might proceed The Limits of Tradition Mariko Urano, 2010 CENTER FOR SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES KYOTO UNIVERSITY T p

Beautiful Floods Judith Ehlert, 2012 Floods are generally perceived as natural hazards This book in contrast portrays the beautiful floods of the Mekong Delta which annually constitute a substantial resource for people's rural livelihoods With a focus on floods the book employs a lifeworlds analysis to investigate dynamics of environmental and livelihood knowledge among farming and fishing communities and it demonstrates that rapid agrarian change has both positive and negative impacts Series ZEF
