Searching For Peace In Africa:

Searching for Peace in Africa Monique Mekenkamp, Paul van Tongeren, Hans van de Veen, 1999 The Horn of Africa
U.S. Diplomacy and the Search for Peace Michael H. Armacost, 1985 Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1993
The State, Ethnicity, and Gender in Africa Scott Straus, Aili Mari Tripp, 2024 Postcolonialism the politics of ethnic and religious identity and the role of women in African society and politics have become important and often connected foci in African studies Here fifteen chapters explore these themes in tandem With essays that span the continent this volume showcases the political histories challenges and promise of contemporary Africa Written in honor of Crawford Young a foundational figure in the study of African politics the essays reflect the breadth and intellectual legacy of this towering scholar and illustrate the vast impact Young had and continues to have on the field The book s themes build from his seminal publications and the essays were written by leading scholars who were trained by Young Militarism, Warfare and the Search for Peace in Angola Horace Campbell, 2001 The Palgrave Handbook of Peacebuilding in Africa Tony Karbo, Kudrat Virk, 2018-01-30 This handbook offers a critical assessment of the African agenda for conflict prevention peacemaking peacekeeping and peacebuilding the challenges and opportunities facing Africa s regional organisations in their efforts towards building sustainable peace on the continent and the role of external actors including the United Nations Britain France and South Asian troop contributing countries In so doing it revisits the late Ali Mazrui s concept of Pax Africana calling on Africans to take responsibility for peace and security on their own continent The creation of the African Union in 2002 was an important step towards realising this ambition and has led to the development of a new continental architecture for more robust conflict management But as the volume s authors show the quest for Pax Africana faces challenges Combining thematic analyses and case studies this book will be of interest to both scholars and policymakers working on peace security and governance issues in Africa Finding a moral compass for South Africa JM Vorster, 2023-07-31 The research question of this book reads Can South Africans amidst all the contemporary distrust in political leadership and moral decay find a moral compass that could lead them to a humane society of mutual trust respect for each other a flourishing life and a bright future for future generations This book presents new perspectives on the psychopathology created by colonisation the failures of the post 1994 dispensation regarding reconciliation transformation justice distorted family life violence unity in diversity as well as moral leadership and agency and indifference to a future of hope It proposes a new moral compass that can lead South Africa out of the abyss A Search for Peace and Justice Michael Scott, Alexander Paul Hare, 1980 Knowledge Production and the Search for Epistemic Liberation in Africa Dennis Masaka, 2022-09-09 This book shows the importance of knowledge production using requisite terms and frameworks to the broader scheme of epistemic liberation in Africa The text considers what this veritable direction to knowledge production would mean to other areas of concern in African philosophy such as morality education and the environment These contributions are important because the success of decolonising projects in African countries depend upon the methods that underpin envisioned liberative knowledge production in light of Africa's historical and present condition. This volume appeals to students and researchers working in epistemology and African philosophy. Africa in Search of Democracy K. A. Busia, 2023-05-08. Originally published in 1967, reissued now with a new introduction. Africa in Search of Democracy in the author's words was a humble contribution to Africa's search for political wisdom whereby to avoid destruction. Written by the author during his time in voluntary exile, he was leader of the Parliamentary Opposition and of the United Party in Ghana which opposed the tyrannical rule of Nkrumah and his Convention People's Party. In this book, he proposed to examine the problems facing contemporary Africa within the context of the search for democracy that is for the establishment of societies which provide the best possible conditions for individual as well as social development within the widest measure of democratic freedom. The burning questions of nation building, modernization, raising standards of living, achieving African unity or harmonizing race relations and world peace are discussed in relation to the quest for democracy.

Through Fire with Water Erik Doxtader, Charles Villa-Vicencio, 2003. This collection of essays presents 15 case studies of African countries whose recent past has been shaped by conflict. It examines the historical roots of violence and the potential for reconciliation and justice. Dealing With Conflict in Africa J. Boulden, 2003-12-04. Dealing with Conflict in Africa analyzes the role of the various organizations involved in conflict resolution in Africa. The bulk of the chapters examine case studies of the major conflicts in Africa such as the Congo War. For each case study, the author looks at what responsibilities and tasks were taken on by different organizations, the relationship between the organizations, and seeks to determine which kind of organization is the most effective in working towards successful conflict resolution. The contributors also examine the effectiveness of coalitions of states or eminent leaders to that of UN cooperation with regional organizations and what directions this cooperation should take in the future. The contributors are an international group of scholars and consultants, all of whom are well positioned to analyze these issues. Seeking Peace in Africa Donald Eugene Miller, 2007.

Mapping Agency Ulrike Lorenz-Carl, Martin Rempe, 2016-05-13. Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon, the European Union (EU) is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process. Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception, Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub-Saharan Africa. It adopts an actor-centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism. The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions, its open multi-actor approach to both formal and informal processes, and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub-Saharan Africa. The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor.

amongst many and where local national regional and global state and non state actors shape and sometimes break processes of regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa The Search-light ,1901 Regional Economic Communities and Peacebuilding in Africa Victor Adetula,Redie Bereketeab,Cyril Obi,2020-12-30 This book outlines challenges to the effective operation of regional economic communities RECs with regards to peacebuilding in Africa Critically examining these issues from an interdisciplinary perspective with a focus on comparative analysis of the status role and performances of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and Intergovernmental Authority on Development IGAD it examines particular constraints to their effective participation in regional initiatives Focussing on inadequate technical capabilities the complicity of state and non state actors in conflicts within a region the domestic politics of member states it additionally addresses related theories and practices of peacekeeping security development and the peacebuilding nexus It also engages provisioning regionalism and regional peacekeeping interventions the legal and institutional framework of RECs and civil society and peacebuilding Fundamentally the book asks how effective the alliances and partnerships are in promoting regional peace and security and how much they are compromised by the intervention of external powers and actors exploring new ideas and actions that may strengthen capacities to address the peacebuilding challenges on the continent effectively This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics and studies peace and security studies regionalism studies policy practitioners in the field of African peacebuilding and more broadly to international relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003093695> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license African Review ,1897 East Africa after Liberation Jonathan Fisher,2020-03-05 A novel far reaching analysis of contemporary history and politics in East Africa focusing on the crisis in the region's postcolonial political order Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States.
