Maternal Body and Voice in Toni Morrison, Bobbie Ann Mason, and Lee Smith Paula Gallant Eckard, 2002 Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel Debra Shostak, 2020-02-20 Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel explores the unstable construction of heteronormative white masculinity in the contemporary United States by focusing on relationships between fathers and their children Debra Shostak reads the novels of 18 North American writers publishing in the late 20th and early 21st centuries as allegories of cultural conflict and change within the nuclear family the authors considered include Paul Auster Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Jonathan Safran Foer Jonathan Franzen John Irving Jonathan Lethem Carole Maso Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Claire Messud Viet Thanh Nguyen Tim O'Brien Marilynne Robinson Philip Roth Mona Simpson Jane Smiley and Anne Tyler These novelists portray father figures who often literally or figuratively absent from the family scene disrupt the familial order and their family members' identities Shostak's close readings illuminate unexpectedly conservative even subversive ideological positions at the heart of these fictions Fictive Fathers traces the eroding myth of paternal authority that sustained a patriarchal model within real American families and their literary representations In Search of a Context Thomas R. Hatina, 2002-10-01 In this book the author explores how contexts determine the meaning of embedded scripture texts in the Gospel of Mark Many historical critics base their readings on a context that is external to Mark's story world be it a reconstructed socio-religious setting of the evangelist a Jewish exegetical tradition or some earlier stage in the development of the gospel What is common to these readings is the neglect for the context of the story world the very context in which scripture quotations and allusions are embedded The author proposes a method of reading these embedded texts that is sensitive to the story world though not at the expense of the historical setting in which the gospel was written Jesus' announcement in 1:15 concerning the kingdom of God serves as the point of entrance into Mark's story world In Search of Jerusalem Gretl K. Fischer, 1975-01-01 In Search of Jonathan Lena-Sofia Tiemeyer, 2023 In Search of Jonathan offers a new reading of the character of Jonathan in biblical and modern literature Lena Sofia Tiemeyer uses an intertextual approach to reveal how modern literary works highlight transform and subvert aspects of the biblical text Narratives of the Vietnam War by Korean and American Writers Jinim Park, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Search for Holographic Mind Chester Litvin PhD, 2019-11-13 A psychologist explores the human psyche's tendency toward fragmentation and a plan to restore a healthy self In this debut book Litvin argues that the human psyche tends often as a response to trauma to shatter into disjointed parts This can be a normal and even salutary psychological mechanism especially when employed to defensively sequester the mind from overwhelming pain But the mind can overreact to distress leading to a self so addled with internal fissures that unhappiness anxiety confusion and a deficit of self esteem can ensue Fortunately the author contends the splintering of one's self can be remedied by establishing a dialogue between the parts hence producing a congruence that results in the harmony of a Utopian collective The solid identity is a unique structure of the psyche where the fragments are aligned together in common goals and attitude In order to illustrate his chief points Litvin concocts a fictional case study that chronicles the life of soldier Stepan Kryvoruchko who fled the authoritarian ideology of the Soviet Union and suffered from a shattered identity as a consequence The author vividly personifies the scattered shards of Stepan's mind and the process whereby he heals destructive splitting through a reconstructive unification Litvin compellingly assesses the political dimension of his theory and the virus of radicalization that can infect both individuals as well as body politics Author also includes helpful literary analogies drawing a connection between critique of totalitarian collectivism and Dostoyevsky's novelistic dissection of the issue This volume also expands upon the author's idea of sailing as a metaphor for introspective search and provides a broader account of the nature of individual equilibrium these concrete illustrations are of great instructional value My
