Essays and Studies Algernon Charles Swinburne, 1876 The Search for the Legacy of the USPHS Syphilis Study at Tuskegee Ralph V. Katz, Rueben Warren, 2011-07-16 The Search for the Legacy of the USPHS Syphilis Study at Tuskegee is a collection of essays that seeks to redefine the legacy of the infamous Tuskegee Syphilis Study in light of recent findings from other scientific studies that challenge the long standing widely held understanding of the study These essays are written with thoughtful attention to fully integrate the essayists perspectives on the impact of the study on the lives of Americans today and place the legacy of the study within the evolving picture of racial and ethnic relations in the United States Each essayist looks through his or her own personal and professional prism to give an account of what constitutes that legacy today Contributors include the two leading historians of the Tuskeegee Syphilis Study and two former Surgeons General of the United States as well as other prominent scholars from the fields of public health bioethics psychology biostatistics medicine dentistry journalism medical sociology medical anthropology and health disparities research Essays on simultaneous search equilibrium Ronald Paul Wolthoff,2008 In Search of a Beautiful Freedom: New and Selected Essays Farah Jasmine Griffin, 2023-03-28 Named a Most Anticipated Book of 2023 by The Millions Lively insightful writings on Black music feminism literature and events from a masterful critic and master teacher Walton Muyumba Boston Globe In Search of a Beautiful Freedom brings together the best work from Farah Jasmine Griffin's rich forays on music Black feminism literature the crises of Hurricane Katrina and COVID 19 and the Black artists she esteems She moves from evoking the haunting strength of Odetta and the rise of soprano popular singers in the 1970s to the forging of a Black women's literary renaissance and the politics of Malcolm X through the lens of Black feminism She reflects on pivotal moments in recent American history including the banning of Toni Morrison's Beloved and celebrates the intellectuals artists and personal relationships that have shaped her identity and her work Featuring new and unpublished essays along with ones first appearing in outlets such as the New York Times and NPR In Search of a Beautiful Freedom is a captivating collection that celebrates the work of one of the few great intellectuals in our time Cornel West Teaching Information Literacy and Writing Studies Grace Veach, 2018-09-15 This volume edited by Grace Veach explores leading approaches to foregrounding information literacy in first year college writing courses Chapters describe cross disciplinary efforts underway across higher education as well as innovative approaches of both writing professors and librarians in the classroom This seminal work unpacks the disciplinary implications for information literacy and writing studies as they encounter one another in theory and practice during a time when fact or truth is less important than fitting a predetermined message Topics include reading and writing through the lens of information literacy curriculum design specific writing tasks transfer and assessment In Search of the Dark Ages Michael Wood, 2015-05-14 Updated with the latest archaeological research new chapters on the most influential yet widely unrecognised people of the British isles In Search of the Dark Ages illuminates the fascinating and mysterious centuries between the Romans and the Norman Conquest of 1066 In this new edition Michael Wood vividly conjures some of the most important people in British history such as Hadrian a Libyan refugee from the Arab conquests and arguably the most important person of African origin in British history to Queen Boadicea the leader of a terrible war of resistance against the Romans Here too warts and all are the Saxon Viking and Norman kings who laid the political foundations of England Offa of Mercia Alfred the Great Athelstan and William the Conqueror whose victory at Hastings in 1066 marked the end of Anglo Saxon England Reflecting the latest historical textual and archaeological research this revised and updated edition of Michael Wood's classic book overturns preconceptions of the Dark Ages as a shadowy and brutal era showing them to be a richly exciting and formative period in the history of Britain In Search of a New Humanism M.R. Egidi, 2013-04-17 This collection of essays presents a systematic and up to date survey of the main aspects of Georg Henrik von Wright's philosophy tracing the general humanistic leitmotiv to be found in his vast varied output The analysis covers the developments in Von Wright's thought up to the end of the 1990s The essays are arranged thematically to focus on the chief areas of Von Wright's interests practical rationality human action and determinism philosophical logic and theories of norms research in the analytical tradition and Wittgenstein studies Readership Scholars and students of moral philosophy logic psychology sociology cognitive science and the history of contemporary philosophy In Search of Creative Commons: Crisis, Catastrophe, and Responsive Literature in India Dhritiman Chakraborty, Sanchayita Paul Chakraborty, Mukunda Mishra, 2024-12-18 This book contains selected papers presented at the international conference titled In Search of Creative Commons Crisis Catastrophe and Responsive Literature in India held at the Abid Ali Khan Centre for Digital Archive and Translation of Cultures Gour Mahavidyalaya College from 31 August to 2 September 2023 in collaboration with the Department of English Dr Meghnad Saha College The conference was funded by the Indian Council of Social Science Research ICSSR In this book three basic questions are considered First as humans try to live in and through catastrophes and exceptional situations in the contemporary world what new perspective can literature as a creative form offer for healing and restorative purposes Second what new idioms and narrative styles massive crises such as famine partition migration the decimation of forests rivers and the disappearance of villages held up in creative articulations in colonial and postcolonial times in India Can these representations be called responsive literature Further and this is the third major contention of this book how can responsive literature be thought of as a conceptual category What new transdisciplinary optic should be adopted to go beyond the limits of the literary and eventually include the non literary The objective of these discussions was to contribute to the larger discursive literature on disaster studies which we believe has been excessively hegemonized by concepts from the West By bringing in indigenous ideas from Bhasa Sahitya language and literature the images of samaj society samata equity and ahimsa non violence the existing literature on catastrophe and crisis studies can finally be Literature and Life ... Edwin Almiron Greenlaw.1927 decolonized In Search of a Context Thomas R.

Hatina,2002-10-01 In this book the author explores how contexts determine the meaning of embedded scripture texts in the Gospel of Mark Many historical critics base their readings on a context that is external to Mark s story world be it a reconstructed socio religious setting of the evangelist a Jewish exegetical tradition or some earlier stage in the development of the gospel What is common to these readings is the neglect for the context of the story world the very context in which scripture quotations and allusions are embedded The author proposes a method of reading these embedded texts that is sensitive to the story world though not at the expense of the historical setting in which the gospel was written Jesus announcement in 1 15 concerning the kingdom of God serves as the point of entrance into Mark s story world

Schultz,1999-01-01 A thorough study of quotation within ancient and modern literatures is the background for this new approach to alleged quotations within the prophetic writings The common claim that specific verbal parallels result from the conscious repetition of the words of a predecessor is beset by difficulties After examining quotation in non prophetic ancient Near Eastern early Jewish Old Testament wisdom and narrative and modern Western literatures Schultz proposes a new model for interpreting verbal parallels that utilizes several criteria for identifying quotation and combines diachronic with synchronic analysis He then applies this model to five representative verbal parallels involving the book of Isaiah This book illustrates how an awareness of the versatility of quotation facilitates a more accurate interpretation of verbal parallels and at the same time calls for greater caution in employing them in support of various theories
