What features do poems about this unique urban landscape of diverse peoples and terrains have in common? Poetry Los Angeles is the first book to gather and analyze poems about sites as different as Hollywood, Santa Monica and Venice beaches, the freeways, downtown, South Central and East L.A. Laurence Goldstein presents original commentary on six decades of poets who have contributed to the iconography and poetics of Los Angeles literature including Elizabeth Alexander, Jimmy Santiago Baca, Dorothy Barresi, Victoria Chang, Wanda Coleman, Dana Gioia, Joy Harjo, James Harms, Robert Hass, Eloise Klein Healy, Garrett Hongo, Suzanne Lummis, Paul Monette, Harryette Mullen, Carol Muske Dukes, Frederick Seidel, Gary Soto, Timothy Steele, Diane Wakoski, Derek Walcott and Charles Harper Webb. Forty poems are reproduced in their entirety. One chapter is devoted to Charles Bukowski, the celebrity face of the city's poetry. Other chapters discuss the ways that poets explore Interiors and Exteriors throughout the cityscape. Goldstein also provides ample connections to the novels, films, art and politics of Southern California. In clear prose Poetry Los Angeles examines the strategies by which poets make significant places meaningful and memorable to readers of every region of the U.S. and elsewhere. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Lastingness Nicholas Delbanco, 2011-01-24 America grows older yet stays focused on its young. Whatever hill we try to climb we're over it by fifty and should that hill involve entertainment or athletics we're finished long before. But if younger is better it doesn't appear that youngest is best. We want our teachers, doctors, generals and presidents to have reached a certain age In context after context and contest after contest we re more than a little conflicted about elders of the tribe when is it right to honor them and when to say step aside In Lastingness Nicholas Delbanco one of America s most celebrated men of letters profiles great geniuses in the fields of visual art literature and music Monet Verdi O Keeffe Yeats among others searching for the answers to why some artists work diminishes with age while others reaches its peak Both an intellectual inquiry into the essence of aging and creativity and a personal journey of discovery this is a brilliant exploration of what determines what one needs to do to keep the habits of creation and achievement alive A Room in California Laurence Goldstein,2005-08-02 Southern California is one of two significant places in Laurence Goldstein s fourth collection of poems A native of Los Angeles the author re encounters the vivid ghosts of an exotic personal landscape Criswell the TV prophet Madame Nhu at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel Mickey Cohen in a downtown deli Bob Hope in a photo shoot with the poet s family From the Pacific boardwalk to Death Valley these poems enliven their borderlands with pungent language and dramatic incident Goldstein then takes the reader to Ethiopia the setting of a long dramatic monologue narrated by a young American woman seeking the reincarnation of the medieval Christian potentate Prester John for help in the apocalyptic wars of the twenty first century His most ambitious book to date the subjects in this collection range from the aging pear tree and the domestic living room to Nordic witches and Nazi demons Some poems are in fixed forms including the villanelle Rock Star the sonnet translation from Verlaine Languueur and the rhymed quatrains of a narrative poem adapted from a short story by Arthur Miller Other poems employ organic style to explore the poet s situation or predicament in the culture he has outlived and the culture he has inherited Under Fire Elizabeth Goodenough,Andrea Immel,2008 An eclectic multidisciplinary collection that explores the representation of war and its aftereffects in children s books and documentary film Brings together internationally known contributors to examine the ongoing influence of violence and war on children s literature by studying the childhood experiences of authors writing for children the children represented in war stories and the experiences of children who make up the stories readership From publisher description Powers of Congress Alice Fulton,2001 Powers of Congress exhibits in dazzling language and complex rhetorical structures a passionate curiosity about all aspects of modern American life Sven Birkerts in The Boston Review called Fulton a prodigiously gifted poet and Powers of Congress more than meets that claim Back by popular demand this is a reprint of an important collection that continues to exert a wide influence upon contemporary poetics It will surely intoxicate all those who love the erotic involvement of language with thought She is an ambitious powerful poet She is a thematic gambler of the best sort Her poems are daring and broad Eavan Boland Partisan Review Powers of Congress is a rigorous generous book by one of the finest young poets in the country David Baker Poetry In Powers of Congress Alice Fulton shows she s learned a thing or two about levitation David Barber Hungry Mind Review Marketing plans for Powers of Congress o Newsletter brochure catalog and postcard mailings o Advertisements in key literary and trade magazines Powers of Congress was first published
