Seat In The Crowd:

The New Measures Ted A. Smith, 2007-04-30 The New Measures A Theological History of Democratic Practice brings thick cultural history to contemporary debates about religion and democracy Combining histories of performance space institutions and ideas this 2007 book tells the story of the new measures that circulated in the religious revivals of the 1820s and 30s and traces the role of these practices in the development of democratic culture in the United States The book borrows resources from Walter Benjamin and Theodor Adorno to remember the new measures from an eschatological point of view That eschatological perspective holds together close empirical studies and explicitly theological hopes The book's attention to detail moves it beyond abstraction and caricature to a more materialist political theology And its eschatological hope resists narratives of progress and decline to understand American democracy as both tangled in contradiction and caught up in redemption

Liberty and the Great Libertarians Charles T. Sprading, 2015-04-15 In 1913 Charles T Sprading 1871 1959 wrote a book of remarkable prescience that anticipated the systematic development of an American libertarian tradition He called it Liberty and the Great Libertarians What he provided was a biography and intellectual analysis of some thirty great thinkers Most valuable is his extraordinary job of editing He chooses the best and most enlightening of their writings and brings them to life The thinkers covered include Edmund Burke Thomas Paine Thomas Jefferson William Godwin Wilhelm von Humboldt John Stuart Mill Ralph Waldo Emerson William Lloyd Garrison Wendell Phillips Josiah Warren Max Stirner Henry D Thoreau Herbert Spencer Lysander Spooner Henry George Benjamin Tucker Pierre Kropotkin Abraham Lincoln Auberon Herbert G Bernard Shaw Oscar Wilde Maria Montessori and others Now not all of these people would be considered libertarians by the modern understanding Some even called themselves socialists as absurd as that may sound to us today But they all exhibited in their writings a deep and abiding attachment to the idea of human liberty They agree in the primacy of the individual They agreed that the greatest threat to individual rights is the state And they believed in fighting for these rights They believed in the freedom of assembly freedom of press freedom of religion freedom to think and act They hated war and social control They rejected every form of authoritarianism and in all these areas they made huge contributions As Sprading says in his introduction The greatest violator of the principle of equal liberty is the State Its functions are to control to rule to dictate to regulate and in exercising these functions it interferes with and injures individuals who have done no wrong The objection to government is not that it controls those who invade the liberty of others but that it controls the non invader It may be necessary to govern one who will not govern himself but that in no wise justifies governing one who is capable of and willing to govern himself To argue that because some need restraint all must be restrained is neither consistent nor logical Governments cannot accept liberty as their fundamental basis for justice because governments rest upon authority and not upon liberty To accept liberty as the fundamental basis is to discard authority that is to discard government itself as this would mean the dethronement of the leaders of government we can expect only those who have no economic compromises to make to accept equal liberty as the basis of justice The introduction alone is extraordinary given the times On war he writes How is war to be abolished By going to war Is bloodshed to be stopped by the shedding of blood No the way to stop war is to stop going to war stop supporting it and it will fall just as slavery did just as the Inquisition did The end of war is in sight there will be no more world wars The laboring man who has always done the fighting is losing his patriotism he is beginning to realize that he has no country or much of anything else to fight for and is beginning to decline the honor of being killed for the glory and profits of the few Those who profit by war those who own the country will not fight for it that is they are not patriotic if it is necessary for them to do the killing or to be killed in war In all the wars of history there are very few instances of the rich meeting their death on the battlefield This is a fat book 542 pages with a vast index It remains the best chronicle of libertarian thought ever put together which is why Murray Rothbard chose this book as one of his favorites This edition is a reprint of the original 1913 volume The Utopia MEGAPACK ® Sir Francis Bacon, Samuel Butler, William Morris, 2014-10-22 Utopia A community or society possessing highly desirable or nearly perfect qualities It may be a dream but it s a dream that has inspired writers for thousands of years Plato s Republic may be the very first utopia presented to a mass audience but Thomas More coined the term with his 1516 book Utopia included here which describes a fictional island society in the Atlantic Ocean The term and its antonym dystopia quickly entered the English language And here are 19 other works famous and not featuring utopias and dystopias works by Samuel Butler Charlotte Perkins Gilman Anna Bowman Dodd William Morris Sir Francis Bacon and many others Included are EREWHON by Samuel Butler MOVING THE MOUNTAIN by Charlotte Perkins Gilman HERLAND by Charlotte Perkins Gilman EQUALITY by Edward Bellamy CAESAR S COLUMN by Ignatius Donnelly THE REPUBLIC OF THE FUTURE by Anna Bowman Dodd A CRYSTAL AGE by W H Hudson A TRAVELER FROM ALTRURIA by W D Howells FREELAND A SOCIAL ANTICIPATION by Dr Theodor Hertzka MIZORA A PROPHECY by Mary E Bradley Lane SOLARIS FARM by Milan C Edson LOOKING BACKWARD by Edward Bellamy SOME PICTURES OF A SOCIALIST FUTURE by Eugene Richter UTOPIA by Thomas More THE COMMONWEALTH OF OCEANA by James Harrington THE NEW ATLANTIS by Sir Francis Bacon THE BLAZING WORLD by Margaret Cavendish CHRISTIANOPOLIS
