Uncertain Grace Rebecca Liv Wee, 2001 Winner of the Hayden Carruth Award for New and Emerging Poets On the Nature of Ecological Paradox Michael Charles Tobias, Jane Gray Morrison, 2021-05-18 This work is a large powerfully illustrated interdisciplinary natural sciences volume the first of its kind to examine the critically important nature of ecological paradox through an abundance of lenses the biological sciences taxonomy archaeology geopolitical history comparative ethics literature philosophy the history of science human geography population ecology epistemology anthropology demographics and futurism The ecological paradox suggests that the human biological and from an insular perspective successful struggle to exist has come at the price of isolating H sapiens from life sustaining ecosystem services and far too much of the biodiversity with which we find ourselves at crisis level odds It is a paradox dating back thousands of years implicating millennia of human machinations that have been utterly ruinous to biological baselines Those metrics are examined from numerous multidisciplinary approaches in this thoroughly original work which aids readers particularly natural history students who aspire to grasp the far reaching dimensions of the Anthropocene as it affects every facet of human experience past present and future and the rest of planetary sentience With a Preface by Dr Gerald Wayne Clough former Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and President Emeritus of the Georgia Institute of Technology Foreword by Robert Gillespie President of the non profit Population Communication Rituals of Mediation François Debrix, Cynthia Weber, 2003 A timely consideration of the meaning of transnational cultural interactions today In an era of increasing globalization the cultural and the international have borders as permeable as most nations and an understanding of one requires making sense of the other Foregrounding the role of mediation understood here as a site of representation transformation and pluralization the authors engage two specific questions How might we make theoretical and practical sense of transnational cultural interactions And how are we to understand the ways in which the sites of mediation represent transform and remediate international issues. Accordingly, the authors consider international issues like security, development, political activism, and the war against terrorism through the lens of cultural practices such as traveling through airports, exhibiting art, and photography, logging on to the Internet, and spinning news stories.

Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism Ted Nannicelli, 2020. Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood: namely, that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work. The book pioneers an innovative, production-oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art, one that will provide a refined philosophical account of this important topic as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism.

In This Light Melanie Rae Thon, 2011-05-24. A vibrant selection of stories from the author of Sweet Hearts and First Body. This selection of Melanie Rae Thon's stories showcases her breathtaking ability to become each one of her characters, to move inside the bodies and minds of the dispossessed. One woman speaks for them all: I'm your worst fear. But not the worst thing that can happen. In This Light shimmers with grace as a drunk young woman hits a Native American man on a desolate Montana road; a grieving slave murders the white child she nurses and loves; and two throwaway kids dance in the twinkling lights of a Christmas tree in a stranger's house. Thon's searing prose reveals that the radiant heat inside us all is the hope and hunger for love.

On Good and Evil and the Grey Zone Danchev, Alex. Danchev, 2016-08-18. How can works of the imagination help us to understand good and evil in the modern world? In this new collection of essays, Alex Danchev treats the artist as a crucial moral witness of our troubled times and puts art to work in the service of political and ethical inquiry. He takes inspiration from Seamus Heaney's dictum: the imaginative transformation of human life is the means by which we can most truly grasp and comprehend it. This is a book of blasphemers, world-menders, troublemakers, torturers, and turbulent priests of every persuasion.

The Reception of Chinese Art Across Cultures Michelle Ying Ling Huang, 2014-10-02. The Reception of Chinese Art Across Cultures is a collection of essays examining the ways in which Chinese art has been circulated, collected, exhibited, and perceived in Japan, Europe, and America from the fourteenth century to the twenty-first. Scholars and curators from East Asia, Europe, and North America jointly present cutting-edge research on cultural integration and aesthetic hybridisation in relation to the collecting, display, making, and interpretation of Chinese art and material culture. Stimulating examples within this volume emphasise the Western understanding of Chinese pictorial art while addressing issues concerning the consumption of Chinese art and Chinese-inspired artistic productions from early times to the contemporary period: the roles of collector, curator, museum, and auction house in shaping the taste, meaning, and conception of art, and the art and cultural identity of the Chinese diaspora in a global context. This book espouses a multiplicity of aesthetic, philosophical, socio-cultural
