These words light up the imagination of previously quiet student Stella Tranter in conformist mid 1970s London. Throwing herself into a study of the arts and philosophy she embarks on a quest to find out exactly what they mean. She reads Nietzsche. She gets into punk. She falls in love. None of these works out quite as expected however. Maybe what she really wants is just to be grown up. She settles down in pleasant tree lined Dulwich with unimaginative but well meaning Bobby. Is this really her? Her discontent begins to grow. The opportunity for escape presents itself. It proves irresistible but costly. Freedom she discovers can be lonely and terrifying. It can destroy as well as liberate. This is a snappily written witty but also serious 40 000 word novella about culture ideas love music punk and Mozart making choices and the fact that authenticity is not an easy option. Clever intriguing said prizewinning novelist Dame Beryl Bainbridge about this book adding Stella is an excellent voice. Scores from Rainbow : with El Nino Joan Capafons, 2020-10-04 20 partitures infantils angleses amb partitures adaptades de colors i la seva partitura standard. John Cage's Theatre Pieces William Fetterman, 2012-10-12 The experimental composer John Cage 1912 1992 is best known for his works in percussion prepared piano and electronic music but he is also acknowledged to be one of the most significant figures in 20th century theatre. In Cage's work in theatre composition there is a blurring of the distinctions between music dance literature art and everyday life. Here William Fetterman examines the majority of those compositions by Cage which are aural as well as visual in content beginning with his first work in this genre in 1952 and continuing through 1992. Much of the information in this study comes from previously undocumented material discovered among the unpublished scores and notes of Cage and his frequent collaborator David Tudor as well as author's interviews with Cage and with individuals closely associated with his work including David Tudor Merce Cunningham Bonnie Bird Mary Caroline Richards.
