"I Am Not Master of Events" Larry Neal, 2012-01-24 Two of the greatest financial fiascos of all time took place at the same time and were instigated by two acquaintances the Mississippi Bubble on which John Law at first made a vast fortune and gained sway over French finances and the South Sea Bubble launched by Law and Thomas Pitt Jr Lord Londonderry his main partner in England This book tells the story of these two financial schemes from the letters and accounts of two leading personalities Larry Neal a distinguished economic historian highlights the rationality of each person and also finds that the primitive exchanges of the day though informal and completely unregulated actually performed reasonably well Works

Hot Soldier Cowboy Cindy Dees, 2017-10-18 Susan Monroe never ever wants to see her big brother's best friend again. Small problem: a killer from her past has found her and only the Blackjacks including Special Forces operative Mac Conlon can save her. When Mac shows up at Susan's ranch to take over protection duty, he hopes he can make amends for leaving her the way he did ten years ago. But Susan has grown up and she's having nothing to do with forgiving him. As a dangerous assassin chases them across the wilds of west Texas, Mac and Susan walk a fine line between life and death, love and hate.

What started as a joke unleashes supernatural forces that wreaks havoc on a family whose magic will need the power of the human heart to undo the terrible consequences of one fateful night's mischief Sermons Selected from the Works of the Most Eminent Divines of the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries Edward Atkyns Bray, 1818 28 Days in Darkness Traver

Boehm, 2025-08-26 Join Traver Boehm as he embarks on a profound 28-day initiation into darkness, a journey that forever alters his perception of self and the world around him. Through his lens, you will learn how to embrace darkness, break free from suffering, find hope, and reclaim your life. In 2016, Traver Boehm voluntarily spent 28 straight days in a pitch-black room, utterly alone, embarking on an inward journey that forever altered his perception of darkness. For four weeks, he couldn't see his hand an inch from his face voluntarily. In 28 Days in Darkness, he recounts this harrowing experience, delving deep into his inner darkness and suffering and then emerging back into the world with profound insights. But this book isn't just about Boehm's dark journey; it's an invitation for you to explore your own darkness and uncover the gems hidden deep in the cave of your wounds. And you don't have to sacrifice a month of your life to find them as he did. This book serves to answer two fundamental questions: How do you navigate life when everything falls apart? What truths can only be discovered in the midst and aftermath of crisis? In our culture, we tend to shy away from darkness, pain, and challenge, collectively seeking only love and light. We medicate our discomfort, hide behind our curated social media personas, and avoid confronting the parts of ourselves we've deemed tainted and unworthy. Yet we live in deeply troubled times that demand an evolved and holistic authenticity, and that includes our personal and collective darkness. This book provides a pathway to seek that fully realized authenticity. 28 Days in Darkness doesn't just recount Boehm's heartbreak and pain; it offers a road map for you to embrace your own devastation, accept the parts of yourself that you pretend do not exist, and find the truths that will finally set you free. Each chapter will leave you with concrete steps you can take immediately to navigate your heartache, anger, grief, and so much more. This book is for you if you're tired of living behind rose-colored glasses and crave the kind of authenticity power and connection that can't be found solely by looking upward and outside of yourself. It's for brave souls willing to seek the real truth, the kind you only find when things get dark. A Brief Vindication of the separate existence and immortality of the soul, from a late author's [W. Coward's] "Second Thoughts," etc John TURNER (D.D., Vicar of Greenwich.), 1702 The Difficulties of Belief Thomas Rawson Birks, 1855 Making It Norman Podhoretz, 2017-04-11

A controversial memoir about American intellectual life and academia and the relationship between politics, money, and education. Norman Podhoretz, the son of Jewish immigrants, grew up in the tough Brownsville section of Brooklyn, attended Columbia University on a scholarship, and later received degrees from the Jewish Theological Seminary and Cambridge University. Making It is his blistering account of fighting his way out of Brooklyn and into, then out of, the Ivory Tower of his military service, and finally of his induction into the ranks of what he calls "The Family," the small group of left-wing and largely Jewish critics and writers whose opinions came to dominate and increasingly politicize the American literary scene in the fifties and sixties. It is a Balzacian story of raw talent and relentless and ruthless ambition. It is also a closely observed and in many ways still pertinent analysis of the tense and more than a little duplicitous relationship that exists in America between intellect and imagination, money, social status, and power. "The Family" responded to the book with outrage, and Podhoretz soon turned no less angrily on them, becoming the fierce neoconservative he remains to this day. Fifty years after its first publication, this controversial and legendary book remains a riveting autobiography, a book that can be painfully revealing about the complex convictions and needs of a complicated man, as well as a fascinating and essential document of mid-century American cultural life.
