Long Road Home:

The Long Road Home Lori Wick, 2005-01-01 She can't be dead the young pastor cried as he looked down at the still white face of his new bride Blinded by bitterness Paul Cameron leaves his church and flees to a logging camp deep in the north woods of Wisconsin There he wrestles with his loss unable to get Corrine out of his mind and unwilling to make peace with God When a falling tree crushes his legs Paul can run no further Broken now in body as well as spirit he must face his own heart as he encounters the love of God in the patient care of his nurse Abigail Finlayson The Long Road Home touches shattered dreams with God's faithfulness and the possibility of new love in this turn of the century romance The Long Road Home

Martha Raddatz, 2007-03-01 ABC News Chief Global Affairs Correspondent Martha Raddatz shares remarkable tales of heroism hope and heartbreak in her account of Black Sunday a battle during one of the deadliest periods of the Iraq War The First Cavalry Division came under surprise attack in Sadr City on Sunday April 4 2004 Over 7 000 miles away their families awaited the news for forty eight hellish hours expecting the worst In this powerful unflinching account Martha Raddatz takes readers from the streets of Baghdad to the home front and tells the story of that horrific day through the eyes of the courageous American men and women who lived it A masterpiece of literary nonfiction that rivals any war related classic that has preceded it The Washington Post The North Carolina Symphony Joe A. Mobley, John W.

Lambert, 2019-06-07 From its beginnings during the Great Depression the North Carolina Symphony has touched the lives of countless Tar Heels One of the state's premier cultural organizations and the oldest continuously state supported orchestra in the nation the Suitcase Symphony grew from a small group of volunteer players to the world class orchestra it is today This book details the contributions of founder Lamar Stringfield longtime conductor Benjamin Swalin and his wife Maxine current music director Grant Llewellyn and other leaders of this iconic institution The authors place the symphony's story for the first time in the context of North Carolina's cultural history and in the process reveal much about the musical traditions of the Sahara of the Bozart and about the trials and triumphs of maintaining a state symphony orchestra The Long Road Home

Danielle Steel, 2002 A Book For Kids C.J. Dennis, 2020-07-17 Reproduction of the original A Book For Kids by C.J. Dennis Women Fight, Women Write Mildred Mortimer, 2018-11-29 Today the fight to write the struggle to become the legitimate chronicler of one's own story is being waged and won by women across mediums and borders But such battles of authorship extend well beyond a single cultural moment In her gripping study of unsung female narratives of the Algerian War Mildred Mortimer excavates and explores the role of women's individual and collective memory in recording events of the violent anticolonial conflict Presenting close readings of published works spanning five decades from Assia Djebar's 1962 Children of the New World to Zohra Drif's 2014 Inside the Battle of Algiers Memoir of a Woman Freedom Fighter Women Fight Women Write traces stylistic and material transformations in Algerian women's writings as it reveals evolving attitudes toward memory trauma historical objectivity and women's political empowerment Refuting the stale binary of men in battle

women at home these testimonial texts let women lay claim to the Algerian War story as participants and also as chroniclers through fiction historical studies and memoir Algeria's patriarchal norms long kept women from speaking publicly about private matters silencing their experiences of the war Still the conflict has ceaselessly sparked creative work The country's dark decade of violent struggle between the Algerian army and Islamist fundamentalists in the 1990s brought the liberation struggle back into focus inspiring and emboldening many more women to defiantly write Women Fight Women Write advances the broken silence illuminating its vital historical revisions and literary innovations

Where Poppies Grow Denniele Bohannon, Janice Britz, 2014-09-01 Quilts and projects rooted in history and honoring heroes Denniele Bohannon's great grandfather Almo O Kell served as a medic in World War I and was one of the many soldiers who never came home Together with Janice Britz she created the Kansas City Star's block of the month quilt Remembering Almo to honor those who served their country at the centennial of the Great War Two color variations and setting options are given for the main quilt Three more striking quilts two variations of a table runner and a poppy pin and pincushion round out the projects Also included is information about Almo's life with photos and brief excerpts from his letters

The Rebel Yell & the Yankee Hurrah John W. Haley, 2014-09-07 On an I will if you will dare John Haley enlisted in the 17th Maine Regiment in August 1862 for three years unless sooner discharged Discharged shot or starved would have been more accurate Haley later wryly observed Though a reluctant soldier at first he served steadfastly in the Army of the Potomac for nearly three years participating in some of the most significant battles of the Civil War John Haley was not the only soldier to record each day's events in his journal by firelight or by picket's lantern for his was a literate generation He was unusual in that he later painstakingly rewrote his battlefield notes reflecting at leisure and adding fascinating political and personal commentary to produce the remarkable volume he calls Haley's Chronicles

Destination Elsewhere Ruth Balint, 2021-11-15 In this unique history from below Destination Elsewhere chronicles encounters between displaced persons in Europe and the Allied agencies who were tasked with caring for them after the Second World War The struggle to define who was a displaced person and who was not was a subject of intense debate and deliberation among humanitarians international law experts immigration planners and governments What has not adequately been recognized is that displaced persons also actively participated in this emerging refugee conversation Displaced persons endured war displacement and resettlement but these experiences were not defined by passivity and speechlessness Instead they spoke back creating a dialogue that in turn helped shape the modern idea of the refugee As Ruth Balint shows what made a good or convincing story at the time tells us much about the circulation of ideas about the war the Holocaust and the Jews Those stories depict the emerging moral and legal distinction between economic migrants and political refugees They tell us about the experiences of women and children in the face of new psychological and political interventions into the family Stories from displaced persons also tell us something about the enduring myth of the new world for people who longed to leave the old Balint focuses on those persons whose storytelling skills became a major strategy for survival and escape out of the displaced persons camps and out of the Europe Their stories are brought to life in Destination Elsewhere alongside a new history of immigration statelessness and the institution of the postwar family

Coming In Ron Jordan, 2007-01-24 A wind comes blowing bringing another new day with each breaking dawn Another day of toil and oftentimes tribulation mixed with affection for the land upon which he lives and works the cowhand's existence is a bond between nature and the folks he has come to know and respect His very existence is the epitome of a freedom that most folks will never know but merely dream of These are the heart rending tales of life in southeastern Wyoming living and working with ranchers and ranch hands cowboys and cowpokes and the occasional suburbanite in search of the real west The edge of civilization rises on a near horizon and with its arrival ushers the end of a western heritage and the cowboy culture that few outsiders will ever comprehend Written with truthfulness and candor the author weaves a tapestry of stories and personal experiences forever mindful of the fabric of life that holds this vanishing and fragile rural society together Provocative this is a perspective unlike any other ever presented Anguish coupled with brutal honesty and compassion for the working ranch hand in the American west this is a brotherhood of understanding
