Long Siesta:

Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children's literature Italian American literature Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coruña Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies

Culture and Customs of Spain Edward F. Stanton, 2002-05-30 Modern Spain is a revelation in this up to date overview Stanton vibrantly describes the startling variety of landscape people and culture that make up Spain today Included are a context chapter and others on religion customs media cinema literature performing arts and visual arts Students of Spanish and a general audience will be rewarded with engrossing insights into what writer Ernest Hemingway called the very best country of all Spain is a modern European nation yet Spaniards are fiercely tied to their individual towns and regions with their distinct social customs dialects or languages foods landscape and lifestyles more than to a united country Culture and Customs of Spain conveys the extremes such as the hard working Catalan contrasted to the leisurely paced Castilian coexisting in first and third world conditions and the love hate relationship with the Catholic Church Spain's institutions are described and its contributions to the world from unparalleled literature and cuisine to flamenco and filmmaker Pedro Almodovar are celebrated A chronology and glossary complement the text

The Boy & the Old Man Omar Eby,2009-02-09 So who is Omar Eby A retired English professor tenderhearted and cynical who looks with affection and severity upon the young man he once was in Somalia Ebys first chapter Learning My Name quickly and playfully sets the tone for this fascinating memoir The Boy and the Old Man Identifying with one Omar after another Eby skips from a Taliban terrorist and a four star general to a translator of Somali tales and an Old Testament duke then recalls an English student in Mogadiscio and an Epicurean Persian poet meets a Chilean Anabaptist and finally names the close friend of Prophet Muhammad Omar ibn al Khattab You think this an exercise in narcissism Of course notthe author finds too many ties linking a nave Mennonite missionary boy to Muslim society and the incredible beauty of the natural worldshows too well the tensions between documented facts and dramatic memory On the horn of Africa Somali pirates seize tankers On the mainland clans fire rockets into each others quarters of Mogadishu once the capital of the Somali Republic But Omar Eby remembers another Somalia when he taught there 50 years ago Through the grid of accumulated years Eby studies that missionary boy The reader hears two voices the 23 year old boy and the 73 year old man Often the old man loves the boy often the boy embarrasses him The Somalis Eby remembers as beautiful and exasperating then in 1959 as now in 2009 The chapters are like a series of transparencies laid down one on top of the other The boys views overlaid by the mans two visits to Somalia in his thirties and then memory laid over everything With more details everything should be clearer Yet Eby writes in the Introduction we are pleasantly surprised to find that the historically reconstructed self is still blurred as muddy as the Shebelli River which flows through Somalia from the Ethiopian highlands Layers Christina Moutsou, 2018-10-12 Across the years four people caught up in the maelstrom of a family secret attempt to come to terms with its aftermath From London to Athens from Thessaloniki to Paris their various trajectories form an intricate story like the many layers of a sumptuous cake An inner journey and at the same time a kaleidoscope of perspectives which has at its heart the never ending search for redemption An enthralling portrayal of complex emotional turmoil I marvelled at the bold handling of time Not only does it make the reader poignantly feel they are transcending time and space it makes a kind of spellbinding music out of the juxtapositions and leitmotifs lyrically woven throughout the narrative Dr Graham Frankland academic translator and editor author of Freud's Literary Culture Christina Moutsou is a Cambridge graduate in social anthropology and a psychoanalytic psychotherapist working in private practice in London Her collection of short stories has been published by Routledge in September 2018 with the title Fictional clinical narratives in relational psychoanalysis Stories from adolescence to the consulting room Layers has been translated into Greek and published by Archetipo in March 2018 with the title Black Cake Winston Churchill's American Cousin and Other Tales Scot Walker, 2001-05 We walked and we walked and it seemed like hours before we finally made it to the cemetery and since it was the first cemetery Eddie and Robert had ever visited it took a lot of enticing to lure them in Stop bawling Aunt Katie screamed as she grabbed her sons by their scrawny arms and started to drag them through the half opened gates We're only going to be here a few minutes to meet your grandpa and then we'll go home Well the minute Eddie heard the words meet your grandpa he let out a scream that could have awakened grandpa from his twenty year nap And as soon as Eddie started bawling Robert grabbed hold of the iron gate with a resolution that would have done Hercules proud Meanwhile I decided that maybe it wasn't such a good idea to say hi to grandpa after all Maybe we should just toss the pretty plastic flowers over the fence and run like hell We're not going to see grandpa my mother said we're just going to pay him a little respect He's dead and he's buried and he's going to stay that way Now get a grip and follow me In Name Only Diana Hamilton, 2011-07-15 I never bet on certainties Javier Campuzano attractive head of a wealthy Spanish family was sure of Cathy's real character She was selfish immoral and a bad mother who would be only too happy to hand over little Johnny to his Spanish relatives and abandon all responsibility for his future upbringing But what Javier didn't know was that Cathy wasn't the child's mother even though she claimed to be Another sizzling romance from the ever popular Diana Hamilton who has over ten million books in print Jorge Luis Borges: The Last Interview Jorge Luis Borges, 2013-06-25 Believe me the benefits of blindness have been greatly exaggerated If I could see I would never leave the house I'd stay indoors reading the many books that surround me Jorge Luis Borges Days before his death Borges gave an intimate interview to his friend the Argentine journalist Gloria Lopez Lecube That
