challenges popular assumptions with surprising research for example people over the age of 60 spend more time on the Internet than people of any other age group and trenchant cultural critique she forces us to confront the deeply entrenched ageism in today's technology driven workplace The Devil and Daniel Silverman Theodore Roszak, 2003 Danny Silverman a gay Jewish novelist is invited to give a speech on humanism at a church college in Minnesota where he gets snowed in with a hostile audience of Christian fundamentalists Sociology: A Down to Earth Approach James M Henslin, Adam M Possamai, Alphia L Possamai-Inesedy, Tim Marjoribanks, Katriona Elder, 2015-05-20 James Henslin has always been able to share the excitement of sociology with his acclaimed down to earth approach and personal writing style that highlight the sociology of everyday life and its relevance to students lives Adapted for students studying within Australia this text now in a second edition has been made even more relevant and engaging to students With wit personal reflection and illuminating examples the local author team share their passion for sociology promote sociology to students and entice them to delve deeper into this exciting science Six central themes run throughout this text down to earth sociology globalisation cultural diversity critical thinking the new technology and the growing influence of the mass media on our lives These themes are especially useful for introducing the controversial topics that make studying sociology such a lively exciting activity The Human Odyssey Thomas Armstrong, 2019-03-20 Thomas Armstrong Ph D an award winning educator and expert on human development offers a cross cultural view of life's entire journey from before birth to death to the possibilities of an afterlife Dr Armstrong cites both clinical research and anecdotal evidence in a comprehensive view of the challenges and opportunities we face at every stage of our development His accessible narrative incorporates elements of history literature psychology spirituality and science in a fascinating guide to understanding our past as well as our future Thomas Armstrong's The Human Odyssey is an extraordinary book an intellectual feast Armstrong has amassed and integrated an amazing amount of information from developmental and transpersonal psychology modern consciousness research biology anthropology mythology and art and created an extraordinary guide through all the stages of the adventure of human life While the rich content of this book will impress professional audiences its clear and easy style makes it quite accessible to the general public Stanislav Grof M D former Chief of Psychiatric Research Maryland Psychiatric Research Center author of Realms of the Human Unconscious Beyond the Brain Birth Death and Transcendence in Psychotherapy and Adventures in Self Discovery The Making of an Elder Culture Theodore Roszak, 2009-09-01 Forty years later the audacious generation takes on the unfinished business of their counter culture youth It is a brilliant and highly original thesis I commend Roszak for writing the book Tom Pochari World Affairs Monthly sense of optimism that comes out in this book where Roszak champions the possibility of restoring that lost commitment to the ideals of liberation Tom Hartley The Summer of Love Vietnam Woodstock These are the milestones of the baby boomer generation Theodore Roszak chronicled in his 1969 breakthrough book The Making of a Counter Culture Part of an unprecedented longevity revolution those boomers form the most educated most socially conscientious politically savvy older generation the world has ever seen And they are preparing for Act Two The Making of an Elder Culture reminds the boomers of the creative role they once played in our society and of the moral and intellectual resources they have to draw upon for radical transformation in their later years Seeing the experience of aging as a revolution in consciousness it predicts an elder insurgency where boomers return to take up what they left undone in their youth Freed from competitive individualism military industrial bravado and the careerist rat race who better to forge a compassionate economy Who better positioned not only to demand Social Security and Medicare for themselves but to champion Entitlements for Everyone Fusing the green the gray and the just Eldertown can be an achievable truly sustainable future Part demographic study part history part critique and part appeal Theodore Roszak's take on the imminent transformation of our world is as wise as it is inspired and utterly appealing Theodore Roszak is the author of fifteen books including the 1969 classic The Making of a Counter Culture He is professor emeritus of history at California State University and lives in Berkeley California

Encyclopedia of Counseling Frederick T. Leong, 2008-04-25 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Magazine January 2010 From the depressed and lonely college student to the business executive at midlife experiencing decreasing levels of career satisfaction to the couple where one partner has been unfaithful in the relationship counselling is the intervention that numerous individuals turn to each year as the challenges and stress of daily living exceed their normal coping abilities Counselling is practised by counsellors social workers psychiatric nurses psychologists and psychiatrists Counseling is to be differentiated from psychotherapy in that the latter deals more with mental illnesses and psychological disorders while the former is more concerned with normative stresses adjustment difficulties and life transitions e.g. adjusting to unemployment or going through a divorce The Encyclopedia of Counseling will be the definitive resource for members of the public who are interested in learning about the science and practice of counselling It will also be a useful resource for undergraduate and graduate students as well as professionals from other specialties Covering all of the major theories approaches and contemporary issues in counselling the set includes over 600 entries The Encyclopedia will consist of four volumes a changes and challenges facing counseling b personal counseling for mental health problems c career counseling and d cross cultural counseling Each volume is organized alphabetically and will contain a comprehensive index and cross referencing system to entries in other volumes Volume One Changes and Challenges for Counseling in the 21st Century History of Counseling Definition of Counseling Professional Associations Licensure Accreditation Managed Care Marriage Counseling Family Counseling Ethical Codes Volume Two Personal Counseling and Mental Health Problems Alcoholism Psychodynamic Theories of Counseling Cognitive Behavioral Approaches to Counseling Depression Suicide Eating Disorders Bereavement Counseling Volume Three Career and Vocational Counseling Career Assessment Instruments Holland's Model of Career Intervention Strong Interest Inventory Guidance and Career Counseling in Schools Career Counseling for Midlife Transitions Career Resources on the Web Violence in the Workplace Volume Four Cross Cultural Counseling Acculturation Cultural Identity Counseling African Americans Counseling Hispanic Americans Counseling Refugees Counseling Sojourners and International Students Cross Cultural Counseling Competencies Toward Post Ageing Katarina Friberg Felsted, Scott D. Wright, 2014-08-27 This book examines the emergent and expanding role of technologies that hold both promise and possible peril for transforming the ageing process in this century It discusses the points and counterpoints of technological advances that would influence a reconstruction of what it means to age when embedded in a post human vision for a post biological future The book presents a provocative interdisciplinary meta analysis that contrasts paradigms with inflection points making the case that society has entered a new inflection point provisionally labeled as Post Ageing It goes on to discuss the moderate and radical versions of this inflection point and the philosophical issues that need to be addressed with the advent of post ageing activities postponing and possibly ending ageing primarily through technological advances This book will be a valuable resource for professionals who wish to review the continuum of varied constructs and intersects of technologies ranging from those purporting to enhance the activities of daily living in older adults to those that would enable the older worker to stay competitive in the labor market to those that propose to extend longevity and ultimately claim to transcend ageing itself moving toward a transhumanistic domain and more specifically a post ageing inflection point Whole Earth ,2002

Statistical Panic Kathleen Woodward, 2009-01-16 Reflections on how Americans are constrained by cultural scripts for age race and gender proper emotional behavior and how our increasingly media saturated culture impoverishes our interior lives Retire on Less Than You Think Fred Brock, 2003-04-14 The bestselling hands on retirement guide thoroughly updated and expanded for in depth advice on housing assets health care options and more With Retire on Less Than You Think The New York Times Guide to Planning Your Financial Future Fred Brock challenged the conventional wisdom on the real costs of retirement and it struck a chord with Americans Now the finance expert has updated his indispensable advice on finding asset streams working during retirement maximizing your health insurance and choosing a community and housing to show how to manage the quicksand of the housing market your best asset pay for the spiraling costs of prescription drugs discover new cost cutting savings plan for shifts over time in your financial goals Boasting expanded resource lists and worksheets Retire on Less Than You Think is the best guide available for making your retirement dreams a reality Valuable Newsweek Need some encouragement to think boldly Get yourself a copy of Retire on Less Than You Think Dallas Morning News Plenty of helpful and useful material For workers intrigued by the idea of retiring for less Brock s book is well worth reading Boston Globe My Mother's Hip Luise Margolies, 2004 Some 400 000 hip fractures occur every year the vast majority among the elderly all too often these fractures are associated with death or severe disability After her mother s double hip fracture Luisa Margolies immersed herself in identifying and coordinating the services and professionals needed to provide critical care for an elderly person She soon realized that the American medical system is ill prepared to deal with the long term care needs of our graying society The heart of My Mother's Hip is taken up with the author's day to day observations as her mother's condition worsened then improved only to worsen again while her father became increasingly anxious and disoriented As both a devoted daughter and a skilled anthropologist Margolies vividly renders her interactions with physicians nurses hospital workers nursing home administrators the Medicare bureaucracy home care providers and her parents In the Lessons chapter that follows each episode she discusses in a broader context the weighty decisions that adult children must make on their parents behalf and the emotional toll their responsibility takes Here she addresses the complex practical issues that commonly arise in such situations understanding the consequences of hip fracture and its treatment preparing health care proxies and advanced directives enabling elders to remain at home and the heartbreaking dilemma of prolonging life Like many adult children Margolies learned her lessons about eldercare in the midst of crises This book is intended to ease the information gathering and decision making processes for others involved in eldercare
