Selected Writings Gerard de Nerval, 2006-09-28 Poet visionary short story writer and autobiographer Gerard de Nerval 1808 1855 explored the uncertain borderlines between dream and reality irony and madness autobiography and fiction with his groundbreaking writings This comprehensive selection of his works includes Aurélia the memoir of his madness the haunting novella of love and memory Sylvie considered to be a masterpiece by Proust the hermetic sonnets of The Chimera as well as Nerval's experimental fictions and selections from his correspondence which demonstrate his lucid awareness of how nineteenth century psychiatry consigned his fertile imagination to the status of mental illness Together these pieces confirm Nerval's place as a pioneering modernist a precursor of the French Symbolists and a vital model for such writers as Marcel Proust André Breton Antonin Artaud and Michel Leiris

Selected Writings Walter Benjamin, 2004 In the final years of the Weimar Republic Benjamin emerged as the most original public intellectual in the German speaking world Here Benjamin is represented by two of his greatest literary essays Surrealism and On the Image of Proust as well as by an article on Goethe and a selection of his wide ranging commentary for German newspapers

Selected Writings Ruben Dario, 2005-12-06 Born in Nicaragua Rubén Darío is known as the consummate leader of the Modernista movement an esthetic trend that swept the Americas from Mexico to Argentina at the end of the nineteenth century Seeking a language and a style that would distinguish the newly emergent nations from the old imperial power of Spain Darío's writing offered a refreshingly new vision of the world an artistic sensibility at once cosmopolitan and connected to the rhythms of nature The first part of this collection presents Darío's most significant poems in a bilingual format and organized thematically in the way Darío himself envisioned them The second part is devoted to Darío's prose including short stories fables profiles travel writing reportage opinion pieces and letters A sweeping biographical introduction by distinguished critic Ilan Stavans places Darío in historical and artistic context not only in Latin America but in world literature For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Selected Writings on Computing: A personal Perspective Edsger W. Dijkstra, 2012-12-06 Since the summer of 1973 when I became a Burroughs Research Fellow my life has been very different from what it had been before The daily routine changed instead of going to the University each day where I used to spend most of my time in the company of others I now went there only one day a week and was most of the time that is when not travelling alone in my study In my solitude mail and the written word in general became more and more important The circumstance that my employer and I had the Atlantic Ocean between us was a further incentive to keep a fairly complete record of what I was doing The public part of that output found its place in what became known as the EWD series which can be viewed as a form of scientific correspondence possible since the advent of the copier That same copier makes it hard to estimate its actual distribution I myself made about two dozen copies of my texts but their recipients were welcome to act as further nodes of the distribution tree The decision to publish a selection from the EWD series in book form was at first highly embarrassing but as the months went by I got used to the idea As soon as some guiding principles had been adopted preferably not published elsewhere as varied and as representative as possible etc The Selected Writings of William Hazlitt Vol 9 Duncan Wu, Tom Paulin, David
