Gasman documents the institutional forces stymieing faculty diversification and she makes the case for how such deficiencies can and should be rectified Even as institutions publicly champion inclusive excellence and the number of doctoral students of color increases Gasman reveals the entrenched constraints contributing to the faculty status quo Impediments to progress include the alleged trade off between quality and diversity the power of pedigree the rigidity of academic pipelines failures of administrative leadership lack of accountability among administration and faculty and the opacity and arbitrariness of the recruitment and hiring process Gasman contends that leaders must acknowledge institutional failures of inclusion pervasive systemic racism and biases that restrict people of color from pursuing faculty careers Recognizing that individuals from all backgrounds are essential to the creation and teaching of knowledge Doing the Right Thing puts forth a concrete call for colleges and universities to take action and do better
