Newell Jr one of the few relatives to have frequent conversations with her Dedman and Newell tell a fairy tale in reverse the bright talented daughter born into a family of extreme wealth and privilege who secrets herself away from the outside world Huguette was the daughter of self made copper industrialist W A Clark nearly as rich as Rockefeller in his day a controversial senator railroad builder and founder of Las Vegas She grew up in the largest house in New York City a remarkable dwelling with 121 rooms for a family of four She owned paintings by Degas and Renoir a world renowned Stradivarius violin a vast collection of antique dolls But wanting more than treasures she devoted her wealth to buying gifts for friends and strangers alike to quietly pursuing her own work as an artist and to guarding the privacy she valued above all else The Clark family story spans nearly all of American history in three generations from a log cabin in Pennsylvania to mining camps in the Montana gold rush from backdoor politics in Washington to a distress call from an elegant Fifth Avenue apartment The same Huguette who was touched by the terror attacks of 9 11 held a ticket nine decades earlier for a first class stateroom on the second voyage of the Titanic Empty Mansions reveals a complex portrait of the mysterious Huguette and her intimate circle We meet her extravagant father her publicity shy mother her star crossed sister her French boyfriend her nurse who received more than 30 million in gifts and the relatives fighting to inherit Huguette s copper fortune Richly illustrated with more than seventy photographs Empty Mansions is an enthralling story of an eccentric of the highest order a last jewel of the Gilded Age who lived life on her own terms
