Looking Through Letterboxes Poems

Edith Granger

Looking Through Letterboxes Poems:

Looking Through Letterboxes Caroline Bird, 2002 Bird at first appears to be a traditional story teller But her stories are suspended in a language charged with metaphor and most of them are built upon foundations which are familiar fairy tale fantasy and the bitter sweet world of romance The Man Who'll See the Poet Geraldine Murfin-Shaw, 2014-07-04 This book takes up the story where At Least She Never Drank Much the first volume of Geraldine s autobiography left off Her erratic journey through life continues to intrigue as she walks out of her job and into an enchanted world of witches weirdos and wannabe poets Two offbeat characters she meets at an Earth Mysteries Group kick off the changes that Fate has in store for her and a charismatic stranger she meets on a train takes her on a magical mystery tour through Cumbria s Lakeland opening up her latent spirituality and leaving her hearing the Voice of God in her head Like the Cat that Walks by Himself Geraldine threads her own path through witches sabbats predatory preachers performance poets and passionate romances coming out at the end of it with The Man Who ll See the Poet the only man who ever saw her as she was instead of what he wanted her to be There is magic and mayhem in this charming book which has Ms Murfin Shaw s uniquely individualistic touch Object Lessons: The Life of the Woman and the Poet in Our Time Eavan Boland, 1996-07-17 In this important prose work one of our major poets explores through autobiography and argument a woman s life in Ireland together with a poet s work Eavan Boland beautifully uncovers the powerful drama of how these lives affect one another how the tradition of womanhood and the historic vocation of the poet act as revealing illuminations of the other I, Cinna (The Poet) Tim Crouch, 2012-06-11 I Cinna The Poet has one short scene in Shakespeare s Julius Caesar where he is mistaken for someone else and killed by the mob Now in a new play by Tim Crouch this unlucky man is given a chance to tell his story Written for ages 11 I Cinna The Poet is a fusion of theatre multimedia and creative writing tasks Cinna asks his young audience to consider the relationship between words and actions art and politics self and society During the performance he asks us to write alongside him a small poem on a big theme Originally commissioned for the World Shakespeare Festival which is produced by the Royal Shakespeare Company for London 2012 Festival Shortlisted for the Writers Guild Award for Theatre Play for Young People 2013 The Complete Works of Charles Dickens: Novels, Short Stories, Plays, Poetry, Essays, Articles, Speeches, Travel Sketches & Letters (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, 2024-01-15 In The Complete Works of Charles Dickens readers are presented with a comprehensive anthology showcasing the literary genius of one of the most celebrated authors of the Victorian era This meticulously curated collection encompasses the full spectrum of Dickens writings including his nuanced novels poignant short stories engaging plays and insightful essays The literary style is characterized by rich character development and intricate plotting serving as both a mirror and critique of 19th century society with an emphasis on themes such as social injustice poverty and personal redemption The illustrations enrich the experience offering visual representations that complement the text s depth and complexity Charles Dickens 1812 1870 was not only a prolific writer but also a fierce social critic shaped by his own experiences of hardship during his formative years His deep empathy for the marginalized and a vivid imagination stemmed from both his childhood struggles and his acute awareness of the societal disparities of his time Dickens ability to weave personal anecdotes with broader social commentary is reflected throughout this collection which captures the essence of his literary vision and commitment to advocating for reform Highly recommended for both literary enthusiasts and casual readers this collection provides an unparalleled opportunity to delve into the varied and impactful body of work by Charles Dickens The complete anthology invites exploration of timeless narratives that resonate with contemporary issues making it an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to understand the complexities of the human condition as explored through Dickens unparalleled lens In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works unifying features themes or stylistic evolutions The Author Biography highlights personal milestones and literary influences that shape the entire body of writing A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era social currents cultural trends and key events that underpin their creation A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection tying the stories together while spotlighting the different work s strengths Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author s overarching message inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts Lastly our hand picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points serving as touchstones for the collection s central themes

Adapting Translation for the Stage Geraldine Brodie, Emma Cole, 2017-07-06 Translating for performance is a difficult and hotly contested activity Adapting Translation for the Stage presents a sustained dialogue between scholars actors directors writers and those working across these boundaries exploring common themes and issues encountered when writing staging and researching translated works It is organised into four parts each reflecting on a theatrical genre where translation is regularly practised The Role of Translation in Rewriting Naturalist Theatre Adapting Classical Drama at the Turn of the Twenty First Century Translocating Political Activism in Contemporary Theatre Modernist Narratives of Translation in Performance A range of case studies from the National Theatre s Medea to The Gate Theatre s Dances of Death and Emily Mann s The House of Bernarda Alba shed new light on the creative processes inherent in translating for the theatre destabilising the literal performable binary to suggest that adaptation and translation can and do coexist on stage Chronicling the many possible intersections between translation theory and practice Adapting Translation for the Stage offers a unique exploration of the processes of translating adapting and relocating work for the theatre
