but joy comes in the morning As someone who has gone through breast cancer mastectomy chemotherapy and reconstruction and gratefully came out the other side I have learned firsthand that laughter and praise has its place and it sure helps From going bald to losing twenty five pounds the chemo diet way humor and praise has been an effective weapon in my fight against this disease that is no respecter of persons This is not to say that I laughed throughout my whole cancer experience I didn't This isn't to say that I sang praises every day because I didn't However I often times found myself encouraging those who came by to cheer me up I would put them at ease by asking them if they wanted to see my boob less chest or my baldhead Laughter helps and so does talking to someone who's been there My prayer is that this book will help someone who is going through breast cancer and also help those who love them Faith hope praise and a good dose of laughter can make a great difference in the journey you are now experiencing Sharing with other women helps diffuse the fear of cancer Cancer is not a life sentence it is merely a word I also hope this book will encourage women everywhere to get a mammogram today
