John MacNeil Hannah Thomas MacNeil,1897 Sands and McDougall's Directory of Victoria ... Melbourne and Suburban Sections ... Country Section Sands & McDougall, Melbourne,1913 The Holocaust and Australia Paul R. Bartrop,2022-07-28 Paul R Bartrop examines the formation and execution of Australian government policy towards European Jews during the Holocaust period revealing that Australia did not have an established refugee policy as opposed to an immigration policy until late 1938 He shows that following the Evian Conference of July 1938 Interior Minister John McEwen pledged a new policy of accepting 15 000 refugees not specifically Jewish but the bureaucracy cynically sought to restrict Jewish entry despite McEwen s lofty ambitions Moreover the book considers the largely negative popular attitudes toward Jewish immigrants in Australia looking at how these views were manifested in the press and in letters to the Department of the Interior The Holocaust and Australia grapples with how when the Second World War broke out questions of security were exploited as the means to further exclude Jewish refugees a policy incongruous alongside government pronouncements condemning Nazi atrocities The book also reflects on the double standard applied towards refugees who were Jewish and those who were not as shown through the refusal of the government to accept 90% of Jewish applications before the war During the war years this double standard continued as Australia said it was not accepting foreign immigrants while taking in those it deemed to be acceptable for the war effort Incorporating the voices of the Holocaust refugees themselves and placing the country s response in the wider contexts of both national and international history in the decades that have followed Paul R Bartrop provides a peerless Australian perspective on one of the most catastrophic episodes in world history

Sounding 1 BEFORE 1840 The notes, journals and characters of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation. With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history. Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences, events, observations, intentions, self-serving judgements, ignorance, naivete, treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius, Latin legalese for land belonging to no people. The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff, propaganda of Empire, capitalism or racist, sectarian Christian bible dogma that was the self-serving mindset of the white land takers. Batman and Fawcner's land hunting deals with local Koori's along with the re-emergence of the remarkable wild white castaway Buckley made their mark on the first settlement at Melbourne. The focus widens in 1836 with Surveyor General Major Mitchell's and his Wuradjuri guides conquering the interior from the Murray near Mildura to the Western District at Portland and then back north-east across the state to the Murray upstream at Albury. His wheel tracks opened up Victoria from the north. First contact, race interactions at Port Phillip and the notion of cultural coexistence during the first five years leads to the role of successful battler and publican Fawcner in the colonial invasion process from Kulin country to sheep run to city. Sounding 1 then winds up with Melbourne's first executions and descriptions of Port Phillip as the money melting pot forming the Melbourne hub of world capitalism. Twentieth century academic studies now identify native religion, language, zones, tribal locations and clan heads at the time of dispossession by pirate capitalism. In describing the Australian land rush, the chapter echoes, oscillate between history, sociology, race theory, trade and class wars, whaling and sealing, imperialism and the monopoly East India Company army mates all pitted against the vanishing race of hunter-gathering savages. The dispossession was virtually complete in Victoria before the 1850's gold rushes transformed the sheep runs into banker's dividend wealth for the winners. Sounding 2 DISPOSSESSION AT MELBOURNE Sounding 2 unfolds gently with a wistful early Melbourne memoir involving Batman's lost lawyer Gellibrand in 1836 but then we confront the frontier kill or be killed point of necessity. The violent life times and fate of mass murderer Fred Taylor who was first employed as overseer for banker Swanston's Bellarine peninsula land grab sets the local dispossession tone. Taylor's repeated atrocities today exposes a credibility gap in Oz between civilized progress and slaughter that now looms over all else in Victoria's birth as an independent state in 1851. The winter of 1837 saw the first violent death of a white squatter and his servant by savage natives north-west of Williamstown at Mt Cotterell. Town leaders such as Fawcner and police chief Henry Batman formed a posse that also included clan heads from both the Melbourne and Geelong tribal areas. Buckley refused to take part in the vigilante party and its punitive actions belied the humanitarian standards expressed in Batman's treaty deed. This revenge slaughter and destruction of villages by the white invaders forced the

Sydney government to investigate and so began administering law and order at Port Phillip By 1838 Sydney trumped Batman's land grab and the penal government of NSW on the one hand executing eight whites for killing what the newspapers called savages while on the other hand providing sufficient speedy cavalry to tackle black resistance in Victoria at places such as west of Colac and near Benalla after the Faithfull massacre The arrival in 1839 of first governor La Trobe and the Aboriginal Protectorate plan then unfolds the development of town civic structures while tribal life disintegrates Government and private measures to tame the naked Melbourne natives culminated with the dawn Merri Creek round up in October 1840 of hundreds of Kulin by Major Lettsom's redcoats and townsmen This appears as the death blow to tribal life and with the first shiploads of migrating British colonists arriving in 1841 near genocide for the Kulin Mara Kurnai and Murray River first peoples
