

OGHAM ALPHABET

WRITING IN OGHAM

To write in Ogham start by creating the drum or central line. If you are carving onto timber or stone then the edge itself can be used as the drum. The start of each sentence or inscription begins with an arrowhead (pointing up) then simply write or carve each word, making sure that the letters are not too close together and you leave a space between each word. Finally, finish with the reverse arrowhead (pointing down) at the end of each sentence; see the example in the border to the right.
