Ogoki River Guides Emergent Leadership Among The Northern Ojibwa:

The Ogoki River Guides Edward J. Hedican, 2010-10-30 The Ogoki River Guides describes the prolonged struggle that members of a small native community in northern Ontario have undertaken in their attempt to establish a viable local economy The leaders of Collins the community in which the events of the book take place have made a concerted effort to ensure that the community takes charge of its own affairs and in doing so have generated some important lessons for governmental policy in northern areas The study makes evident the fact that certain changes in current government practices are needed especially in areas of local inputs into policy and control issues if community based groups like Ogoki River Guides are to flourish and if real local initiatives in economic development has a chance to become a widespread pattern in northern areas The suggestion then is that studies such as the present one which focus on the economic development projects of the native community are necessary in order to help orient government policy and planning The author uses an exchange theory approach to study the conditions favouring emergent community leadership and to analyse the ways in which political activity in small communities is apt to change under particular conditions and stresses Yet he also demonstrates some of the inadequacies of exchange theory itself especially in terms of its difficulty in accounting for variations in historical and cultural change The Ogoki River Guides should be of interest not only to those in the academic community but also to those concerned with native affairs at the community level or in higher administrative capacities of planning policy and development

Applied Anthropology in Canada Edward J. Hedican, 2008-01-01 Anthropologists are often reluctant to present their work relating to matters of a broad social context to the wider public even though many have much to say about a range of contemporary issues In this second edition of a classic work in the field Edward J Hedican takes stock of Anthropology's research on current indigenous affairs and offers an up to date assessment of Aboriginal issues in Canada from the perspective of applied Anthropology In his central thesis Hedican underlines Anthropology's opportunity to make a significant impact on the way Aboriginal issues are studied perceived and interpreted in Canada He contends that anthropologists must quit lingering on the periphery of debates concerning land claims and race relations and become more actively committed to the public good His study ranges over such challenging topics as advocacy roles in Aboriginal studies the ethics of applied research policy issues in community development the political context of the self government debate and the dilemma of Aboriginal status and identity in Canada Applied Anthropology in Canada is an impassioned call for a revitalized Anthropology one more directly attuned to the practical problems faced by First Nations peoples Hedican's focus on Aboriginal issues gives his work a strong contemporary relevance that bridges the gap between scholarly and public spheres

The Legacy of Shingwaukonse Janet Elizabeth Chute, 1998-01-01 Explores how Shingwaukonse and other Native leaders of the Great Lakes Ojibwa sought to establish links with new government agencies to preserve an environment in which Native cultural values and organizational structures could survive

The First Nations of Ontario Edward J.

Hedican,2017-08-11 As John Steckley writes in his Foreword this unique text provides something that has been missing from the literature for too long the first comprehensive overview of the histories cultures and socio economic conditions of the First Nations of Ontario the province territory with the highest Indigenous population in Canada Situated within the larger context of Canadian Indigenous issues anthropologist Edward J Hedican provides an accessible introduction to the complex and diverse histories of the First Nations of Ontario from early prehistoric times to contemporary day Each chapter incorporates the voices and perspectives of Indigenous peoples on topics such as treaties the archaeology of early Ontario neo colonial trends restorative justice and the present challenges facing Indigenous communities With an annotated list of online resources a glossary of important terms and an extensive appendix providing information on every First Nation in Ontario this text is an invaluable resource both for students in Indigenous Studies and Anthropology as well as for anyone interested in the rich culture and heritage of the First Nations of Ontario Treaty No. 9 John Long,2010 Restoring nearly forgotten perspectives to the historical record John Long considers the methods used by the government of Canada to explain Treaty No 9 to Northern Ontario First Nations He shows that many crucial details about the treaty s contents were omitted in the transmission of writing to speech while other promises were made orally but not included in the written treaty Reproducing the three treaty commissioners personal journals in their entirety Long reveals the contradictions that suggest the treaty parchment was never fully explained to the First Nations who signed it pub website Social Anthropology Edward Hedican,2012-01-15 This is the first introductory text that focuses on social anthropological research using Canadian examples and perspectives In this groundbreaking new book Edward Hedican provides undergraduate students with a solid background on the theoretical and applied aspects of anthropology while exploring the rich history of the discipline in a Canadian context In ten concise chapters readers are introduced to the basic conceptual building blocks of introductory anthropology in a refreshingly succinct and engaging way With a strong focus on Canadian theory this book includes discussion of evolutionism feminist anthropology marriage and the family and political economy Femmes, FŽminisme Et DŽveloppement Huguette Dagenais,Denise PichŽ,1994 For the past twenty years feminist grass root movements professionals and researchers have shown how the social construction of gender relations interacts with all forms of imperialism to mould the dominant ideologies of development Based on a constant dialogue between theory and practice research and action their analyses of society and international development begin with women s experience and aim at policies and actions directed toward social change and the empowerment of women Public Anthropology Edward J. Hedican,2016-01-01 Contemporary anthropology has changed drastically in the new millennium expanding beyond the anachronistic study of primitive societies to confront the burning social economic and political challenges of the day In the process anthropologists often come face to face with issues that require them to take a public position issues such as race and tolerance health and well being food security reconciliation and public justice global terror and militarism and digital media This comprehensive but accessible book is both an interesting read and an excellent overview of public anthropology In depth case studies offer an opportunity to evaluate the pros and cons of engaging with public issues while profiles of select anthropologists ensure the book is contemporary but rooted in the history of the discipline After the Famine Edward J. Hedican,2020-03-26 In what began as an inquiry into the migration of his Irish ancestors to Canada Edward J Hedican tells the sweeping story of how Irish farmers came to settle in Eastern Ontario Body Studies in Canada Valerie Zawilski,2021-07-20 How do we perceive ourselves and our bodies in relation to our physical geographical social cultural political psychological and spiritual environments Body Studies in Canada uses intersectional methodological and theoretical frameworks to discuss the political and socio historical discourses that shape body studies in Canadian society This edited volume delves into a variety of timely topics including postcolonial othering of the body social discourses around healthy and un healthy bodies intersections of aging gender race class and size the fitness industries promotion of the ideal body the gendering of bodywork symbols and expressions in carceral environments and self awareness of the body in social and digital media In thirteen chapters editor Valerie Zawilski brings together scholars from a wide variety of disciplines and expertise to provide an interdisciplinary perspective on how the body interacts reflexively with society This collection is a foundational text for sociology of the body and body studies courses as well as gender studies political science and health studies

FEATURES provides a uniquely Canadian perspective on body studies and the surrounding historical and political issues with a focus on decolonization racialization masculinities engagement with critical weight scholarship and immigration pedagogical features include section introductions boxed inserts highlighting key concepts learning objectives questions for critical thinking and a glossary Ipperwash Edward J. Hedican,2013-01-01 Edward J Hedican s Ipperwash provides an incisive examination of protest and dissent within the context of land claims disputes and Aboriginal rights Man in the Northeast ,1990 Northeast Anthropology ,2001 When the Spirit Calls Edward J. Hedican,2023-03-30 In January 1832 in the most southern part of Ontario s James Bay an elderly Cree man by the name of Quapakay was told by the spirits of the shaking tent that in order to survive the winter he was required to spoil the post at Hannah Bay a Hudson s Bay Company goose hunting station Following the directions of the spirits Quapakay and his sons carried out this ill fated task resulting in the deaths of sixteen occupants of the Hannah Bay post Now known as the Hannah Bay Massacre the victims included fur trader William Corrigan the postmaster and his wife and seven other Indigenous people When the Spirit Calls explores the social cultural and historical context in which the Hannah Bay tragedy took place as gleaned from the Hudson Bay Company s archival records and elucidations by Cree oral traditions The research is the culmination of over forty years of investigation by Edward J Hedican in Indigenous communities from the mid 1970s to the present day In the book Hedican aims to uncover the circumstances behaviours and attitudes that led to the slaughter When the Spirit Calls sheds light on the racist attitudes held by the white settler population towards Indigenous people attitudes that were prevalent in our colonial past and that continue to this very day Culture ,1990 The Western Canadian Anthropologist ,1989 The First Ones David Reed Miller,1992 The field of Indian Native studies in North America has benefited from several streams of development The demands for opening curricula to the voices of Aboriginal Canadians and Native Americans led first to the founding of departments and programs in the 1960s and later to post secondary educational institutions Interdisciplinary approaches from more traditional academic sources forged the useful paradigms of ethnohistory political economy ethic studies and new literary criticisms with avenues of expression for Indigenous perspectives Much of this later development focused on the nature of sources theoretical approaches to their critique and production and the hermeneutics in interpretation However these are not the only paradigms and others that are deated in Indigenous systems of thought must also be considered and legitimately explored The search for usable theory sources and perspectives has influenced the developing field of Indian Native Studies This collection of readings bring together a series of articles designed to facilitate the teaching of issues important to introductory courses in Indian Native Studies Back cover Up in Nipigon Country Edward J. Hedican,2000-12-31 Arguing that modern day fieldwork has much to offer a social anthropologist this study takes the author s experience as a worker in a First Nation community in Northern Ontario as an example of how basic research can be linked to theoretical thinking and result in epistemological value The Generation of Power and Fear Paul Driben,Donald J. Auger,1989 Readings in Aboriginal Studies: Human services Samuel Walter Corrigan,1991 Papers covering the full range of contemporary interests in native First Nations studies in Canada including Indian M tis and Inuit groups
