The old school tie Jonathan Gathorne-Hardy, 1978 The Rotarian, 1970-11 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine C. L. R. James Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 2010-12 This study of C L R James s writings is the first to look at them as literature and not as theory This sustained analysis of his major published works places them in the context of his less well known writings and offers an encompassing critique of one of the African diaspora s most significant thinkers and writers Here the author of Black Jacobins World Revolution A History of Pan African Revolt Beyond a Boundary and the lyric novel Minty Alley is seen not only as among the great political philosophers but also as the literary artist that he remained from his first writings in his native Trinidad through his underground years in America to his final essays and speeches in London The writings of James have inspired revolutionaries on three continents They have altered the course of historiography shown that way toward independent black political struggles and established a base for much of today s study of culture This study evaluates them as powerful works of literature The Ivory Tower and Harry Potter Lana A. Whited, 2004 Now available in paper The Ivory Tower and Harry Potter is the first book length analysis of J K Rowling s work from a broad range of perspectives within literature folklore psychology sociology and popular culture A significant portion of the book explores the Harry Potter series literary ancestors including magic and fantasy works by Ursula K LeGuin Monica Furlong Jill Murphy and others as well as previous works about the British boarding school experience Other chapters explore the moral and ethical dimensions of Harry s world including objections to the series raised within some religious circles In her new epilogue Lana A Whited brings this volume up to date by covering Rowling s latest book Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix The TUC and Education Reform, 1926-1970 Dr Clive Griggs, Clive Griggs, 2013-09-05 This book covers a crucial period for the development of state education in Britain the advent of the comprehensive debate before and during the Second World War the War years themselves and the 1944 Education Act the post War Labour Government and Churchill s last government in a time of education expansion From the 1960s the focus shifted to questions of social deprivation and educational opportunities secondary school selection the debate on standards Robbins and higher education and the continuing theme of the dominance of public schools The book is divided into four sections which are then divided into chapters Each chapter takes as its main reference point a key issue within the chronological framework of the book e g resistance to secondary education for all politics and textbooks multilateral and technical schools pressure groups and the 1944 Education Act Churchill and the Conservatives Much new light is thrown on the topics by the author s use of new material and he has made a valuable contribution to the politics of education

Publishers Weekly United States Army Combat Forces Journal ,1954 Bloom's Morning Arthur Asa Berger, 2000 Coffee comforters king sized beds gel toothpaste razors underwear the morning shower all activities and objects we have tended to pay no attention to until the publication of this book In a series of short vignettes endearingly illustrated by the author Arthur Asa Berger gives Americans a profound way to understand their morning rituals Have you ever considered for instance that the digital clock by producing free floating liquid numerals disconnecting us from both time past and time future could be interpreted as a metaphor for the alienation many people feel in contemporary society Or consider our nightclothes The pajama is the most immediate witness to our sexual activities thus we cover our pajamas with a bathrobe to guard against the anxiety of being revealed to other family members The pajama is intricately connected to human shame Bloom's Morning with thirty six short chapters bracketed by brief essays on the nature of semiotic analysis is a perfect book for the inquisitive mind It is chock full of valuable and quirky nuggets from this most interesting of social commentators items that taken together give us a new vision through which to understand ourselves Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.

Parliament,1940 The Landings at Suvla Bay, 1915 Michael J. Mortlock,2015-03-21 This work is an extensive analysis of the 1915 British landing at Suvla Bay one of the most mismanaged and ineffective operations of World War I Chapters examine the events that led to the landings on the Gallipoli peninsula provide a comprehensive report on the landings themselves and analyze the events and decisions contributing to their failure Appendices provide first hand accounts of the landings from period news articles military documents and personal correspondence Making the Difference Dean Ashenden,RW Connell,2020-07-29 First published in 1982 Making the Difference has become a classic in the study of education and of Australian society Hailed on publication as certainly the most interesting book written about Australian schools in a very long time and arguably the most important it has since been recognised as one of the 10 most influential works of Australian sociology not just a major argument and a classic point of reference but an event an intervention in ways of doing research and speaking to practice a methodology a textual style it was designed to be read by a much wider audience than the standard sociological text and it has succeeded Making the Difference draws on a detailed study of the schools and homes of the powerful and the wealthy and of ordinary wage earners It allows children parents and teachers to speak for themselves and from what they say it develops strikingly new ways of understanding educational inequality of how the class and gender systems work and of schools and their social roles Equality of opportunity co education and relevant and meaningful curriculum are all questioned sympathetically but incisively Ranging across educational policy from system level to the everyday experience of kids and teachers from the problems of schooling to the production of class and gender relations this path breaking combination of theory research and politics remains engaging thought provoking and relevant
