Transportation Planning for a Better Environment Peter Stringer, 2013-03-09 All the papers in this volume were presented at a conference on Transportation and Urban Life held in Munich during the third week of September 1975 The conference was sponsored by the Special Programme Panels on Systems Science and Human Factors of the Science Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation The distinguishing characteristic of the conference and of this volume lies in the combination of systems science and human factors contributions in the field of urban transportation The initiative for attempting such a synthesis came from the sponsors It is increasingly realised that the complexity of contemporary problems which applied scientists are being asked to solve is such that the coordinated efforts of several disciplines are needed to solve them The brief which we formulated for the conference and distributed in our international call for papers was as follows The conference is intended to highlight significant psychological, sociological and economic aspects of transportation and urban life and to present new techniques which can be applied to these aspects and their interfaces. Papers were invited in four topic areas: Communities transportation problems in relation to social needs; residential planning; industry and cities; and large urban areas; the economic environment; material resources; Regional development and transportation administration and management at the project and multiprogramme level; and Quality of life and transportation noise; visual intrusion; severance; air pollution. Tourism Research in Ibero-America Andres Artal-Tur, Antonia Correia, María Pilar

He was the first to perform modern Phaco surgery in Europe and designed lens implants that have restored the sight to millions of patients. The word autobiography is simply insufficient to describe this book which is a remarkable testament to the life, works and marriage of a remarkable man. The book details the original invention of the lens implant by Harold Ridley who Eric worked with in his early years of medical training. It goes on to follow the development of small incision Phaco surgery instigated by Charlie Kelman and the disinterest and contempt held by the peers of these ophthalmologic pioneers. The author describes every advance in this field of ophthalmology in fascinating detail. The importance to Eric of religion, spirituality, family life and helping others less fortunate than himself is reinforced in this enthralling and at times very amusing read. Arnott draws you into his narrative, rousing thoughts of disbelief as you are compelled to continue reading each new chapter and event in his life proving as fascinating as the last Entertaining and illuminating A New Beginning in Sight provides a detailed history of ophthalmology and is essential reading for ophthalmologists other specialists and non specialists alike Anxiety at 35,000 Feet Robert Bor,2018-11-13 This book covers the mental health and psychology of pilots including the psychological requirements for certification environmental challenges psychological problems among air crew the effects of disruption to personal relationships alcohol and drug misuse and pilot reactions to accidents Air Rage Angela Dahlberg,2017-03-02 This book introduces a new Human Factors concept that includes the air passenger as an integral part of the aviation system It develops a revised Reason Model on Human Error that applies its principles to the prevention of passenger misconduct with a focus on organizational issues affecting the interface between the air passenger and the airlines It also builds a synergistic model addressing the traditional conflict between safety and service objectives Incorporating a diffusion of air traveller tension a Passenger Risk Management Model leads to a strategic approach for reducing incidents of Air Rage European Journal of Tourism Research ,2020-10-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an open access academic journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as tourism management tourism marketing tourism sociology psychology in tourism tourism geography political sciences in tourism mathematics tourism statistics tourism anthropology culture and tourism heritage and tourism national identity and tourism information technologies in tourism and others are invited Empirical studies need to have either a European context or clearly stated implications for European tourism industry The journal is open to all researchers Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions The journal is indexed in Scopus and Clarivate Analytics Emerging Sources Citation Index There are no charges for publication The editorial team welcomes your submissions to the European Journal of Tourism Research Rail Human Factors around the World John R Wilson,Ann Mills,Theresa Clarke,Jane Rajan,Nastaran Dadashi,2017-06-29 The rail human factors ergonomics community has grown quickly and extensively and there is much increased recognition of the vital importance of ergonomics human factors by rail infrastructure owners rail operating companies system developers regulators and national and trans national government This book the third on rail human factors is d Passengers' experiences of air travel Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2007-07-26 Air travel has expanded hugely over the past 25 years and in 2005 228 million passengers travelled through UK airports This report looks at the passenger experience of air travel from purchasing a ticket to boarding the plane including travel to and from the airport check in and security and complaint resolution It finds that passengers are more frustrated and dissatisfied than ever More choice has not led to more power easier purchasing of tickets has not led to greater transparency security queues are getting longer with rules becoming more convoluted and consumer rights can be
