Hope in the Thought of Jacques Ellul

Lawrence J. Terlizese,2005-10-30 Hope expresses more than an area of concentration in Ellul s thought it is the central idea that binds his disparate elements together Ellul believed that at this moment of history the world since 1945 hope must preoccupy our thinking and lives To understand hope we must first comprehend its absence This entails discerning what causes the absence of hope namely the world s embrace of technique and the abandonment of God Ellul also rejected these as a positive affirmation He wanted to make a firm distinction between reality and truth He affirmed modern abandonment as a realistic fact as an accurate analysis of the present condition not as an affirmation of the truth Hope is truth in Jesus Christ but truth must be asserted against these harsh facts He used facts to incite hope in believers to shake their complacency and to realize their actual condition in the world The idea of hope in the thought of Jacques Ellul can only be properly understood in light of dialectic struggle between negatives which amount to factual representations of the modern world and positives through which hope exerts itself in the face of these facts From this tension will issue personal resolve Technique has brought the world to great collective heights and achievements but this has come at the expense of personal ends and meaning Ellul attempted to bridge this gap by asserting individual meaning against the aggregated progress of technique without destroying the gains made by collective advance This represents the central dilemma in Ellul s thought how does one maintain meaning and personal aims in a world founded on corporate necessity from the Introduction

Theology and Prayer

Gary Eaborn,2023-06-26 What does it mean for rigorous thought about God to be guided by prayer What do Ignatius of Loyola s Spiritual Exercises teach us about discernment How can that discernment become a spiritual discipline which guides our choices throughout life How can that discipline guide the theological choices we all make including those of academic theologians This book moves beyond the abstract notion that theology should be prayerful to bring theology together with a particular spiritual practice It argues that the Spiritual Exercises are a system of prayerful discernment which already provide for reason to be used alongside an openness to all experience and all the ways that we can be guided by the Holy Spirit This book provides a constructive interpretation of the Exercises as a path of prayerful discernment which can be used throughout life It sees in the Exercises a way of active receptivity to all experience treating all experience as worthy of attention but also approaching that experience with humility and caution This book sees theology practiced in this way as a discerning spiritual discipline as more resistant to the challenges of modernity than theology which has been sundered from our spiritual life

This book describes their view of social life. This book is about paradigms and how they connect to methodologies. The authors explore a rich body of paradigms and how they support different methodologies and connect to designing and carrying out research. The book includes clear explanations of complex material, a thorough development of established paradigms, and discussion of contemporary ones such as general interpretivism, critical race theory, and Indigenous orientations. The book's pedagogy includes examples of published research, discussion of the issues related to each paradigm, and the connections between them, and review questions and prompts to help deepen understanding.

A Religious Foundation for Global Business Ethics Cristiano Ciappei, Giacomo Mininni, 2025-03-25. This book aims to draft a viable path for establishing a business ethics model based on the wisdom traditions of nine of the world's great religions: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, Zoroastrianism, and Animism. In light of the failure of many models based on various philosophies, we turn to the only cultural and anthropological realities that have proven to withstand the test of time and move the consciences of billions of people throughout history: religions. By exploring sacred texts and wisdom traditions, we investigate how religions contribute to the ongoing ethical debate in business environments with the aim of sparking academic and public interest in the potential of establishing a truly effective religion-based business ethics model.
