Sheen, Norman Vincent

Peale, and Billy Graham in the Age of Extremes Timothy H. Sherwood,2013-08-15 Fulton J Sheen Norman Vincent Peale and Billy Graham were America s most popular religious leaders during the mid twentieth century period known as the golden years of the Age of Extremes It was part of an era that encompassed polemic contrasts of good and evil on the world stage in political philosophies and international relations The 1950s and early 1960s in particular were years of high anxiety competing ideologies and hero villain mania in America Sheen was the voice of reason who spoke against those conflicting ideologies which were hostile to religious faith and democracy Peale preached the gospel of reassurance self assurance and success despite ominous global threats and Graham was the heroic model of faith whose message of conversion provided Americans an identity and direction opposite to atheistic communism This study looks at how and why their rhetorical leadership both separately and together contributed to the climate of an extreme era and influenced a national religious revival A Match Made in Heaven Susan Wales,Ann Platz,1999-01-29 Sometimes a lost love is found years later and other times divine intervention is the only explanation for A Match made In Heaven Then as now we find ourselves in a world
