Sider,2014-03-14 Since the 1960s the Native peoples of northeastern Canada both Inuit and Innu have experienced epidemics of substance abuse domestic violence and youth suicide Seeking to understand these transformations in the capacities of Native communities to resist cultural economic and political domination Gerald M Sider offers an ethnographic analysis of aboriginal Canadians changing experiences of historical violence He relates acts of communal self destruction to colonial and postcolonial policies and practices as well as to the end of the fur and sealskin trades Autonomy and dignity within Native communities have eroded as individuals have been deprived of their livelihoods and treated by the state and corporations as if they were disposable Yet Native peoples possession of valuable resources provides them with some income and power to negotiate with state and business interests

Sider's assessment of the health of Native communities in the Canadian province of Labrador is filled with potentially useful findings for Native peoples there and elsewhere. While harrowing, his account also suggests hope which he finds in the expressiveness and power of Native peoples to struggle for a better tomorrow within and against domination. TACTICAL COUNTERTERRORISM Dean T. Olson, 2012-05-01. Police officers on the beat, officers on patrol, all cops, local, state, tribal, and federal, 750,000 strong, doing what they do every day, are the first and most effective line of defense against terrorist acts committed in the Homeland. This manual is designed to overcome the failure of our national counterterrorist strategy to better utilize local cops in homeland security by providing essential and practical knowledge local officers can use to identify terrorist precursor activities and more effectively interdict and prevent terrorist attacks from occurring. The goal is to acquaint officers with proactive first preventer knowledge and tactics so they can make police counterterrorism an integral part of their duties. Numerous case studies flesh out concepts such as terrorism, homeland security, terrorist threats posed by different terror groups, police counterterrorism intelligence, lone wolf terrorism, behavioral indicators of Islamist radicalization, terrorist tradecraft, terrorism indicators, and warning signs, the terrorist attack cycle, terrorist attack tactics such as sniping, weapons of mass destruction, arson, improvised explosive devices, IEDs, suicide bombing tactics, and surveillance detection techniques. This manual is an excellent source of basic to intermediate training for intelligence analysts, members of Joint Terrorism Task Forces, criminal intelligence investigators, and all police officers. Gender-Based Violence in South-East Asia Lidwina Inge Nurtjahyo, Mochammad Arief Wicaksono, 2022-06-16. This book presents new research on gender-based violence in Southeast Asia, bringing together varied scholarly work in law, policy, and practice. It enables a greater understanding of violence against women as an international concern, highlighting particular issues that arise in the region. Against a background of international obligations to ensure women's rights through laws and policies that are geared at ending violence against women and girls, this research documents the state failures, individual shame and fear, and societal culture that collectively affects the reporting, investigation, prosecution of perpetrators, and protection of victims. The research explores differing legal mechanisms both internationally and within nation states relating to cases of physical and sexual violence. It recognizes the need for functioning mechanisms to ensure women can report their cases safely and be provided with protective and therapeutic services in a way that is systematic, effective, and measurable. Laws and court decisions are analyzed, crisis and safety centers are examined, and in-depth interviews are conducted with actors and NGOs with relevant roles and functions in the mechanism of cases of violence against women. The result is a comprehensive assessment of the incalculable harm it does within Southeast Asian society and the obstacles it presents for law enforcement. The chapters uncover mechanisms with unique characteristics across Southeast Asia, providing a nuanced understanding of the cultural and social backgrounds as well as the religious structures that can both help and hinder suitable frameworks. It is relevant to scholars, policymakers, and practitioners in law, criminology, and gender sociology. This is a valuable contribution.
