A World Gone Reverse S. H. Marpel, J. R. Kruze, 2019-01-07 When the hamburgers all disappeared along with the buns I was warming I thought I was seeing things. But when my spatula went through the cast iron grill top I had to let it go out of reflex. No way was I going after it. I'd been burned too many times. It wasn't like I had a choice after that. Because the grill itself dropped out through the bottom of the rolling coach we were cooking out of that summer I looked up at Ham, my order taker, partner and lover, only to see her fall through the floor as well. A look of shock and trying to say something but frozen in time. Then the coach disappeared and I fell with it but only as far as the pavement it used to be parked on. I could see the asphalt beneath my feet at least. Until it turned to some sort of foamy waves lapping on a beach I'd never seen before. Green hard packed sand. Green water. And a long white line that went down this beach like it was some sort of dual lane highway. Get Your Copy Now
