Saharan Boy:

Saharan Boy Richard Bellamy, 2002-11-01 NULL Young People's Daily Mobilities in Sub-Saharan Africa Gina Porter, Kate Hampshire, Albert Abane, Alister Munthali, Elsbeth Robson, Mac Mashiri, 2016-11-26 This book explores the daily mobilities and immobilities of children and young people in sub-Saharan Africa. The authors draw on findings from rural and urban field research extending over many years culminating in a 24 site study across three African countries: Ghana, Malawi and South Africa. Wider reflections on gender relationality, the politics of mobility and field methodology frame the study. By bringing together diverse strands of a complex daily mobilities picture from journeys for education, work, play, leisure and health to associated experiences of different transport modes, road safety and the virtual mobility now afforded by mobile phones, the book helps fill a knowledge gap with crucial significance for development policy and practice. Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1972 A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard, 2021-04-25 In A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard immerses readers in the stark yet profound landscapes of the Sahara Desert, weaving a rich tapestry of personal discovery and cultural dialogue. Through lyrical prose, Gerard explores themes of identity, belonging and resilience against the backdrop of breathtaking vistas and the harsh realities of desert life. The narrative combines elements of magical realism with a poignant coming-of-age story, reflecting both the geographical and emotional landscapes that shape the protagonist's journey toward self-understanding. Gerard's nuanced character development is emblematic of contemporary literature's exploration of place and its profound impact on the human experience. Louise Gerard, known for her sensitivity to diverse cultures and her deep appreciation for the natural world, draws on her extensive travels and personal experiences in North Africa to craft this evocative narrative. With a background in anthropology, she adeptly intertwines historical and cultural insights, offering a perspective that honors the complexities of life in desert communities. These elements fuel her exploration of existential questions as she deftly examines the relationships between individuals and their environments. A Son of the Sahara is a compelling read for those who seek an exploration of identity amid the vastness of the human experience. Gerard's evocative storytelling invites readers to lose themselves in its pages, prompting reflections on their own journeys and the cultures that shape them. This book will resonate with fans of literary fiction who appreciate the intersection of place and personal narrative. Mathematics Teaching and Professional Learning in sub-Saharan Africa Kakoma Luneta, 2021-12-09 The book represents a crop of wide-ranging research conducted by renowned scholars in sub-Saharan Africa revolving around mathematics teaching and professional development programs for mathematics teachers. The research-based proposals and actual how-to conduct professional development initiatives that enhance effective mathematics instruction are rooted in teacher input and informed by learners' errors and misconceptions. The book provides a comprehensive snapshot on mathematics teaching, learning and effective professional development programmes for mathematics teachers in sub-Saharan Africa. It is the only research output that advances and International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook
