The Sahel Facing the Future Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Permanent Inter-State Committee for Drought Control in the Sahel, Sahel Club, 1988 Sahel Facing the Future - Increasing Dependence Or Structural Transformation Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Permanent Inter-State Committee for Drought Control in the Sahel, 1988 International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda, 2000

Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states World and Its Peoples Marshall Cavendish, 2006-09 Describes the geography people culture and politics of the countries of the Middle East Central Asia and North Africa

Ramachandran Nair, Dennis Garrity, 2012-08-22 This volume contains a solid body of the current state of knowledge on the various themes and activities in agroforestry worldwide It is organized into three sections the Introduction section consists of the summaries of six keynote speeches at the 2nd World Congress of Agroforestry held in Nairobi Kenya in 2009 that is followed by two sections of peer reviewed thematic chapters grouped as Global Perspectives seven chapters and Regional Perspectives eleven chapters authored by professional leaders in their respective agroforestry related fields worldwide A total of 130 professionals from institutions in 33 countries in both developing and the industrialized temperate regions of the world contributed to the book as chapter authors and or reviewers Thus the book presents a comprehensive and authoritative account of the global picture of agroforestry today Roots in the African Dust Michael Mortimore, 1998-09-17 The image of Africa in the modern world has come to be shaped by perceptions of the drylands and their problems of poverty drought degradation and famine Michael Mortimore offers an alternative and revisionist thesis dismissing on theoretical and empirical grounds the conventional view of runaway desertification driven by population growth and inappropriate land use In its place he suggests a more optimistic model of sustainable land use based on researched case studies from East and West Africa where indigenous technological adaptation has put population growth and market opportunities to advantage He also proposes a more appropriate set of policy priorities to support dryland peoples in their efforts to sustain land and livelihoods The result is a remarkably clear synthesis of much of the best work that has emerged over past years Beyond Territory and Scarcity Quentin Gausset, Michael Anthony Whyte, Torben Birch-Thomsen, 2005 In this volume ten anthropologists and geographers critically address traditional Malthusian discourses in essays that attempt to move beyond territory and scarcity When the Bough Breaks...
