Sailing In Stitches An Account Of A Two Year Circumnavigation:

Sailing in Stitches John Cocker, 2003 Sailing in Stitches relates the story of a circumnavigation in a 74 foot Yawl Dr John Cocker a retired Family Physician and Publisher of STITCHES the Journal of Medical Humour decided at age 67 that he still had time for one more adventure The book relates the planning and purchase of the vessel and then the adventures that happened along the way A motley crew was assembled and left Fort Lauderdale in November 2000 Dr Cocker with 20 000 miles of blue water sailing experience was the only one on board who had sailed out of sight of land before Heading down the Caribbean to Trinidad and then the Panama Canal Dr Cocker relates stories of the sailing along with anecdotes and incidents that occurred The vast space of the Pacific the 3 000 mile leg to the Marquesas when no other boat was seen for three weeks and the events that occurred on scattered Pacific Islands together with some natural history economics and gossip make fascinating reading From Australia the voyage headed from Bali through the South China Seas where they were boarded at night by pirates then through Pirate Alley the Straits of Malacca and to Phuket Next came the Indian Ocean Red Sea Mediterranean and home across the Atlantic Dr Cocker's interest in foreign land history geography and people is evident and his outspoken criticism of regimes and religions make fascinating reading for those of us who choose to stay at home and a guide for those of us who wish to sail

The Years of Living Wet John Huetter, 2008-11 Some years ago having little or no money in my purse and nothing particular to keep me on shore I thought I would sail about a little and see the watery part of the world Ishmael Moby Dick by Herman Melville 1851 Has so little changed in 150 years Finding myself unattached and wandering in the international technology arena I sold my Victorian era home built in 1900 by a sea captain four blocks from San Francisco Bay and went searching for a boat of my own After months I found a British built catamaran that met my long list of desired on board features floating in a creek of Chesapeake Bay near Annapolis There was snow on the ground when I first saw Quo Vadis Sea trials were sailed in gale force winds The boat was snug inside sailed flat and sure and soon became my new home One of its best features was its ability to take me places I d never been where I would meet characters I could not have imagined or made up One of them was an exciting woman We hooked up at a high school reunion our 40th Now I invite you to spend some time with a new if vintage skipper on this voyage of discovery The years go by quickly I promise you John Huetter Born into a military family John Huetter first sailed at age nine during long summers on the Mediterranean The boat was 12 ft long wooden with a single canvas sail and hemp rigging Nearly fifty years later he went sailing again this time on a cruising catamaran from the U S East Coast to the West Coast stopping by the Bahamas Caribbean South America en route to the Panama Canal Central America and Mexico In between the author played football and rowed crew in high school jumped for the USAF Academy Parachute Team designed computer control systems raced and tested off road motorcycles and started up alternate energy and technology R D companies He also had a long happy relationship and two wonderful children He s currently looking for that beach with clear warm water and the perfect surf break
