French Prose in 2000 , 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990's held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years

Figures et voix du double chez Saint-John Perse Jean-Louis Cluse, 2006 Comme la vie d'Alexis Leger l'œuvre de Saint John Perse est placée sous le signe du doublement Dans le volume des œuvres Complètes des très rares personnages historiques et crivains offrent au poète des figures extérieures en lesquelles se projeter M me d'Alphonse avec deux animaux le cheval et l'oiseau véritables totems Inversement les personnages masculins des poèmes qui se déploient entre les deux pôles de l'homme de songe et de l'homme d'action sont des sortes de doubles projetés hors de son propre moi De même pour la femme dans une certaine mesure figure de doublement D'autre part le texte poétique accueille nombre de voix qui doublent la voix première Enfin l'auteur anonyme de la Biographie et des Notes n'est qu'un double du poète autre projection du moi Dans une perspective psychanalytique ce doublement ressortit au narcissisme omniprésent chez Saint John Perse et inscrit dans une relation triangulaire moi idéal face aux images parentales Le doublement est soit une démarche d'énergie orientée vers le triomphe de la vie et d'un moi riche et multiple soit au contraire comme tend le suggérer l'étude des motifs du masque du mime et du singe la marque d'un moi inconsistant et sans limite

Writing Across Worlds John Connell, Russell King, Paul White, 2002-11-01 International migration has long been a dominant feature of world literature from both post industrial and developing countries The increasing demands of the global economic system and continued political instability in many of the world's regions have highlighted this shifting map of the world's peoples Yet political concern for the larger scale economic and social impact of migration has effectively obscured the nature of the migratory experience itself the emotions and practicalities of departure travel arrival and the attempt to rebuild a home Writing Across Worlds explores an extraordinary range of migration literatures from letters and diaries to journalistic articles autobiographies and fiction in order to analyse the reality of the migrant's experience The sheer range of writings Irish Friulian Italian Jewish and South Asian British Gastarbeiter literature from Germany Pied noir French Algerian and French West Indian writing Caribbean novels Slovene emigrant texts Japanese Canadian writing migration in American novels narratives from Australia South Africa Samoa and others illustrate the diversity of global migratory experience and emphasise the social context of literature The geographic and literary range of Writing Across Worlds makes this collection an invaluable analysis of migration giving

Eliot E.M. Forster Virginia Woolf with a postcolonial writer Aimé Césaire Glissant Patrick Chamoiseau J.M. Coetzee Edwidge Danticat interpreting major works of prewar and interwar modernism in light of postcolonial and Francophone literature cultural theory and historiography Read together these texts suggest a turn sometimes subtle or conflicted in earlier Atlantic modernist texts while usually more overt in later Caribbean and postcolonial texts toward comparative forms marked by irresolution and a wavering sense of authority With the rise of world literature and global modernist studies it becomes all the more pressing to examine how comparative forms can alert us to unspoken and misrecognized relations while also confronting us with the difficulty of representing the Other By bringing into relation these ostensibly unconnected often discrepant texts de Gennaro challenges entrenched territorial habits of literary meaning An aspirationally nonterritorial comparative literature she argues diverges not only from Eurocentric formalist approaches but also from global comparatists that emphasize incommensurabilities to the point of eliding significant textual and contextual connections Drawing on interdisciplinary postcolonial efforts especially in the social sciences to deterritorialize categories of identity culture and community Modernism after Postcolonialism dispenses with outdated modernist and postcolonial paradigms to reveal how the anxious inconclusive comparisons of transnational modernist poetics can call us to imagine new solidarities across bounded territories
