Salem Oh:

Salem, Ohio Dale Shaffer, 1999 This eagerly anticipated sequel to Salem Ohio provides a pictorial view of Salem in the twentieth century While preserving the past for future generations this volume also captures memories for native Salemites who no longer live in town From the 1906 Centennial Parade to the recent Jubilee parades all aspects of Salem s heritage are celebrated in this fascinating history Pictured in this collection are historic buildings that no longer stand including the Pennsylvania Railroad depot the Hicksite Meeting House and the Grand Theater as well as scenes of the revitalized downtown area Old schools churches homes mills mausoleums and covered bridges provide a glimpse of early twentieth century Salem and document the many changes that have taken place over the years Photographs of museum artifacts many of which were products manufactured in Salem are also included The author concludes with images of prominent people such as the internationally known artist Charles Burchfield and some of the area s unique sights such as Gen John Morgan s monument and the beehive coke ovens Historical information accompanies each of the 234 photographs in this volume constructs such a new framework in three stages First Lowery explores Wesley s reliance upon Lockean empiricism He contends that Wesleyan epistemology should remain more closely tied to empirical knowledge and should distance itself from mystical and intuitionist models like Wesley s own spiritual sense analogy Second examining the way that Wesley appropriates Jonathan Edwards s view of the religious affections Lowery shows that Wesleyan ethics should not regard emotions as something to be passively experienced Rather emotions have cognitive content that allows them to be shaped Third Lowery completes the new framework by suggesting ways to revise and expand Wesley s own conceptual scheme These suggestions allow more of Wesley s concerns to be incorporated into the new schema without sacrificing his core commitments The final chapter sketches the doctrines of assurance and perfection in the new framework Assurance is based on religious faith and on self knowledge both empirical and psychological and perfection is understood in a more teleological context The result is a version of Wesleyan ethics more faithful to Wesley s own thought and able to withstand the scrutiny of higher intellectual standards
