Sales Law And Product Liability:

Sales Law and Product Liability Michael H. Whincup, Michael Whincup, 1999 Examining a wide range of typical commercial contract terms this text explains what is involved in making a contract discussing liabilities and remedies for breach of contract International Product Liability Law and Uniform Sales Law Diana Sewerin, 2000 Any contract for the sale of goods between international commercial traders may be subject to the U N Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods CISG If a buyer suffers damages as a result of a breach of contract she is entitled to damages under the Convention The issue in this thesis is whether a buyer may also invoke product liability actions under national tort law if a defective good causes bodily injury or property damage The provisions of the CISG generally displace national law governing the rights and obligations deriving from a contract of sale Despite the desirability of removing the uncertainties of foreign liability regimes from international trade domestic rules of product liability remain in general applicable Only if national tort actions interfere with the core of the Convention s liability regime must the domestic law be modified

Consumer Sales Law John Macleod, James Devenney, 2009-06-02 Fully updated and revised this comprehensive and informative textbook provides readers with an overview of current consumer sales law and equips them with a view of how this fast changing subject has and will continue to develop through the inclusion of new reform proposals This book analyzes the interaction of consumer sales law with politics the appeal of consumer protection to politicians and the influence of the European Union and the EU Directives It also discusses the removal of consumer sales law from its traditional realm of legal professionals to consumer and debt advisors and public officials with the power to seek injunctions to protect consumers In addition to this it fully integrates both the Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 2005 and the Consumer Credit Act 2006 into the basic 1974 Act explains how the sale of Goods Act 1979 has been modified by the 1999 Directive combines the public protection of consumers under the Enterprise Act 2002 e g Office of Fair Trading is supplemented by comprehensive e updates on its Companion Website keeping the content current between editions Written by an author with forty years experience of teaching sales and finance law to undergraduates this textbook is an essential tool for all undergraduates studying commercial and consumer sales law The Common European Sales Law in Context Gerhard

E.U. Sales Directive C. Massimo Bianca, Stefan Grundmann, 2002 European standards of interpretation including interpretation of comparative law and reference to the directive and to instruments of European law are now part of sound legal practice even in the most routine of domestic cases The huge reforms in many national laws in some countries the rewriting of their Code to reflect the Directive is no more than good approximation What really matters and what ultimately will be the decisive standard is the Directive The Geneva Conventions on bills of exchange and cheques the Vienna Convention on the International Sale of Goods and the Brussels Convention on jurisdiction and recognition of judgments were milestones They did not however influence national private law in its core area as profoundly and as extensively as the EU Sales Law Directive will This book starts off by explaining the instruments of European law and their influence on national law and lays solid foundations for a thorough transnational understanding of every single provision of the directive Also discussed are the philosophical historical and economic foundations of the different rules which are followed by a detailed commentary on each individual article

Internet of Things and the Law Guido Noto La Diega, 2022-10-14 Internet of Things and the Law Legal Strategies for Consumer Centric Smart Technologies is the most comprehensive and up to date analysis of the legal issues in the Internet of Things IoT For decades the decreasing importance of tangible wealth and power and the increasing significance of their disembodied counterparts has been the subject of much legal research For some time now legal scholars have grappled with how laws drafted for tangible property and predigital offline technologies can cope with dematerialisation digitalisation and the internet As dematerialisation continues this book aims to illuminate the opposite movement rematerialisation namely the return of data knowledge and power within a physical smart world This development frames the book's central question can the law steer rematerialisation in a human centric and socially just direction To answer it the book focuses on the IoT the sociotechnological phenomenon that is primarily responsible for this shift After a thorough analysis of how existing laws can be interpreted to empower IoT end users Noto La Diega leaves us with the fundamental question of what happens when the law fails us and concludes with a call for collective resistance against smart capitalism The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www>

Modernising and Harmonising Consumer Contract Law Geraint G. Howells, Reiner Schulze, 2009 In October 2008 the European Commission published the Proposal for a Consumer Rights Directive a proposal that suggests far reaching changes to the core of consumer contract law Four current directives are replaced by a new overarching piece of legislation In doing so full harmonization should for the most part take the place of the minimum standard presently in force in the EU Although a welcomed initiative the extent and possible effects of the Proposal have certainly brought a number of issues to the fore In January 2009 legal experts from universities legal practices and the civil service met at Manchester University to address the issues raised by the Proposal and to address the question of the extent to which the Proposal can indeed contribute to the modernization and harmonization of European consumer contract law This book contains the proceedings of the conference and includes papers that analyze criticize and suggest improvements for the Proposal

Uniform Law for International Sales Under the 1980 United Nations Convention John Honnold, 2009-01-01 In explicit recognition of Professor Honnold's unique understanding of the Convention's development and the issues that occupied those who drafted and finalized the text the substantial new textual material incorporated into this new edition is set in bold italics allowing the reader to distinguish the work of the editor from text preserved from earlier editions and thus identifying the material that carries Professor Honnold's special authority Over three decades Professor Honnold's almost intuitive grasp of the instrument has guided governments tribunals scholars and practitioners towards an enlightened international understanding of the treaty This new edition provides tribunals practitioners and scholars with even more invaluable insights into the meaning of each article of the Convention

CISG vs. Regional Sales Law Unification Ulrich Magnus, 2012-08-31 In October 2011 the European Commission introduced its Proposal for a Regulation on a Common European Sales Law (CESL) which covers inter alia international business sales a subject already regulated by the Convention of International Sale of Goods (CISG) which was ratified by 78 member states How does this new Proposal fit the existing uniform sales law How have other regions of the world managed the coexistence of global and regional sales law unification What can Europe learn from the U.S. experience concerning the CISG and the Uniform Commercial Code What can we learn from the African OHADA which made CISG more or less the internal law of 17 African states what from Australia where CISG and common law exist alongside All these questions are intensely discussed in this highly recommendable book written by renowned authors like Larry DiMatteo Harry Flechtner Franco Ferrari Robert Koch Ulrich Magnus and Bruno Zeller

Comparative Consumer Sales Law Geraint Howells, Christian Twigg-Flesner, Hans-W. Micklitz, Chen Lei, 2017-12-06 For many years legislators around the world have responded to the particular needs of consumers by introducing dedicated rules for consumer sales contracts In the European Union a significant push came through the adoption of the Consumer Sales Directive 99/44/EC Elsewhere in the world legislation focusing on consumer sales contracts has been introduced for example in New Zealand and Australia This book offers a snapshot of the current state of consumer sales law in a range of jurisdictions around the globe It provides both an overview of the law in selected jurisdictions and compares the application of these rules in the context of two case scenarios
