Herbert Biberman

Salt Of The Earth The Story Of A Film:

Salt of the Earth Herbert J. Biberman, 1965 Concerns the struggle of Biberman one of the Hollywood Ten to produce and distribute the film against blacklisting and boycott within the film industry Salt of the Earth Herbert Biberman, 1987-07-01 Salt of the Earth Michael Wilson, 1978 This 1954 film made in New Mexico by blacklisted Hollywood people and members of a progressive union was denied distribution during the McCarthy era The film documents an actual strike and is narrated by a Mexican American woman who grows in consciousness and effectiveness through her participation in the community struggle With the publication of this book the Feminist Press reprints Wilson s screenplay and introduces an original work by Deborah Silverton Rosenfelt an analysis of the background history and significance of both the strike and the film Based partly on recent interviews Rosenfelt s work includes a discussion of the change in status of the women who took part in this strike for better conditions American Women's History on Film Rosanne Welch, Peg A. Lamphier, 2022-11-07 By exploring a range of films about American women this book offers readers an opportunity to engage in both history and film in a new way embracing representation diversity and historical context Throughout film history stories of women achieving in American history appear few and far between compared to the many epic tales of male achievement This book focuses largely on films written by women and about women who tackled the humanist issues of their day and mostly won Films about women are important for all viewers of all genders because they remind us that the American Experience is not just male and white This book examines 10 films featuring diverse depictions of women and women s history and encourages readers to discern how and where these films deviate from historical accuracy Covering films from the 1950s all the way to the 2010s this text is invaluable for students and general readers who wish to interrogate the way women s history appears on the big screen 'Salt of the Earth' Salena Zito, 2024-12-04 Despite the wealth of information at our fingertips in the information age there is a glaring emptiness that plagues us in our storytelling We remove nuance and replace it with sensationalism We shun original stories because they stray too far from the pack In the process we miss the beauty pain and magic the simplicity and grace of simple real life stories about the ordinary lives of people who work the soil to make America possible The result is that we lose touch with who we are as a nation In this collection of syndicated columns from 2023 and 2024 Zito pays attention to those stories From talking with workers in small towns to covering the biggest political figures of our time Zito paints a picture of where the country is after the midterm elections all the way through the final summer of presidential campaigning She approaches each subject with compassion and curiosity and strives to ensure that no everyman is forgotten or ignored The Suppression of Salt of the Earth James J. Lorence, 1999 Examines the conception production distribution and suppression of the pioneering labor feminist film made during the virulently anti communist era of the Cold War Radical Innocence Bernard F. Dick, 2021-08-24 On October 30 1947 the House Committee on Un American Activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry Hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the Screen Writers Guild and the Communist party eventually received contempt citations By 1950 the Hollywood Ten as they quickly became known which included writers directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year Since that time the members of the Hollywood Ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as Cold War martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions Radical Innocence A Critical Study of the Hollywood Ten is the first study to focus on the work of the Ten their short stories plays novels criticisms poems memoirs and of course their films Drawing on myriad sources including archival materials unpublished manuscripts black market scripts screenplay drafts letters and personal interviews Bernard F Dick describes the Ten s survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts Radical Innocence captures the personality of each of the Ten including the arrogant Herbert J Biberman the witty Ring Lardner Jr the patriarchal Samuel Ornitz the compassionate Adrian Scott and the feisty Dalton Trumbo
