The Dead Man Nora Gold, 2016 The Dead Man is a compelling novel about a woman who is obsessed Eve a composer of sacred music and a music therapist is well aware of the saying Physician heal thyself but she just can't seem to do this For some unknown reason she a sensible intelligent professional can't recover from a brief relationship she had five years ago with a world famous music critic named Jake This obsession with Jake is a mystery to Eve's friends and also to her In an attempt to solve this mystery she returns to the scene of the crime Israel where Jake still lives and where they first fell in love There she revisits all their old haunts and struggles to complete the song cycle she started composing five years ago about Jake but hasn't been able to finish Gradually the dark mystery behind their complex relationship begins to unravel Eve discovers the forgotten childhood memories losses and desires that are encapsulated in her connection to Jake And then inspired by all the music she hears around her including the singing of birds the crying of babies and the honking of cars she succeeds in finally completing her song cycle and setting her obsession to rest This novel filled with music dealing with themes of love grief early loss and the power of art will resonate deeply with anyone who has ever loved and lost and will continue to resound and echo for a long time afterward
