Sculptural Idea James J. Kelly, 1986-10-01 Materials and Processes of Contemporary Sculpture Mahmoud Farag, 2020-01-17 Creating a successful sculpture requires an imaginative concept and a sound design that utilize the potential and avoid the limitations of the material and the process used in making it Prior to a few decades ago most sculptors were restricted to carving stone and wood or casting plaster ceramics and bronze for their creations Contemporary sculptors however are no longer bound by the limitations of these traditional materials and processes and can now create works in sizes forms and textures that could not have been achieved previously Many modern sculptures are now made from materials ranging from steel and aluminum to plastics and composites using processes ranging from welding and adhesive bonding to molding and 3D printing To fully utilize the full potential of such new materials the sculptor needs to understand their points of strength their limitations and the most effective way of shaping them to achieve a given design Although this book is written by a materials engineer the subject matter is presented from the point of view of the sculptor with emphasis on the strengths and weaknesses of different materials their resistance to weather conditions natural color and possible surface textures possible methods of shaping and joining tools and equipment needed and safety measures to take Whenever possible case studies are used to illustrate the sequence of processes and the cost elements involved in shaping a given material to create an actual work of sculpture

Theories of Modern Art Herschel Browning Chipp, W. B. Yeats and the Language of Sculpture Jack Quin, 2022-06-30 This book comprehensively examines the relationship between literature and sculpture in the work of W B Yeats drawing on extensive archival research to offer revelatory new readings of the poet The book traces Yeats s literary and critical engagement with Celtic Revival statuary public monuments in Dublin the coin designs of the Irish Free State abstract sculpture by the Vorticists and modernists and a variety of carvings decorative sculptures and objets d art By charting Yeats s early art school education in Dublin his attempts to raise funds for public monuments in the city and to secure commissions for his favourite sculptors the book documents a lifelong interest in the plastic arts New and original readings of Yeats s poetry drama and prose criticism emerge from this concerted interdisciplinary study

Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood, David Hulks, Alex Potts, 2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture s radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenberg Andr Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works Human-Environment Relations Emily Brady, Pauline Phemister, 2012-02-02 This fresh and innovative approach to human environmental relations will revolutionise our understanding of the boundaries between ourselves and the environment we inhabit The anthology is predicated on the notion that values shift back and forth between humans and the world around them in an ethical communicative zone called value space The contributors examine the transformative interplay between external environments and human values and identify concrete ways in which these norms residing in and derived from self and society are projected onto the environment

The Routledge Companion to Aesthetics Berys Nigel Gaut, Dominic Lopes, 2005 Containing fifty four chapters written by leading international scholars and covering all aspects of aesthetics this fully revised second edition includes eight new entries and updated further reading Romanesque Architectural Sculpture Meyer Schapiro, 2006-11-15 Meyer

Schapiro 1904-96 renowned for his critical essays on 19th and 20th century painting also played a decisive role as a young scholar in defining the style of art and architecture known as Romanesque This is a transcribed and edited version of his Charles Eliot Norton Lectures Elisabeth Frink Elisabeth Frink, 2013 Elisabeth Frink 1930-93 was a leading British sculptor and printmaker whose work is distinguished by her commitment to naturalistic forms and themes This new edition of the catalogue raisonné of her sculpture documents her complete sculptural output in a single volume for the first time and includes new texts by a range of critics and writers Jewish Aspects in Avant-Garde Mark H. Creative Essence Nina Freedlander Gibans, 2005 Examines regional culture through the contributions of visual arts and includes a DVD Arising out of the Cleveland Artists Foundation's Dialogue Series a 22 hour long collection of forums held in cultural institutions and broadcast on National Public Radio Creative Essence examines regional culture through an exploration of the distinguished contributions Cleveland has made to the visual arts and architecture The Dialogue Series brought together a variety of people in the visual arts community to discuss the development of the region's creative life and environment whether it be through architecture and city planning or through the industrial and fine arts They shared their views and knowledge about how regionalism has long influenced artistic productivity Their exchanges and ideas for the future are provocative and thoughtful Richly illustrated with the work of well known Cleveland area artists and architects past and present Creative Essence explores the region's tradition beginning with the Cleveland School of artists that was active and influential during the first half of the twentieth century It moves on to examine the changes that occurred in the last half of the century and the development of the visual arts in northeast Ohio Creative Essence is an important resource for understanding the significant role the visual arts play in our cities and societies and how they contribute to the region's quality of life For those interested in regional history and for students of art history and the visual arts this will be especially valuable The Significance of Art Eleanor Harris Rowland,1913 The Significance of Art Rowland Wembridge,1913

Hawthorne, Sculpture, and the Question of American Art Deanna Fernie,2016-12-05 Deanna Fernie analyzes the significance of sculpture in Hawthorne's fiction through the recurring motif of the fragment in its double guise as ruin and project Her book casts new light on Hawthorne's memorable ruined and unfinished images from the rough hewn figurehead of Drowne's Wooden Image 1844 to the tattered letter A in the unfinished loft of the Custom House in The Scarlet Letter 1850 and the unfinished bust of Donatello in The Marble Faun 1860 Fernie shows how the tension between the formed and unformed enabled Hawthorne to interrogate the origins and the distinctive possibilities of art in America in relation to established European models At the same time she suggests that sculpture challenged and provoked Hawthorne's shaping of his own specifically literary art stimulating him to develop its capacities for expressing irresolution and change Fernie establishes the intellectual contexts for her study through a discussion of sculpture and fragmentary form as revealed in American British and Continental thought Her book will be an important text not only for American literature scholars but also for anyone interested in British and Continental Romanticism and the intersections of art and literature Trade Dress and Design Law , Henry Moore: Sculpture and Drawings Henry Moore,1957 An American Sculptor : Seymour Lipton Lori Verderame,Seymour Lipton,Palmer Museum of Art (Pennsylvania State University),Marion Koogler McNay Art Museum,1999 During the heyday of Abstract Expressionism Seymour Lipton was probably the most admired sculptor

Concerning Stephen Willats and the Social Function of Art Sharon Irish,2020-12-10 This book on Stephen Willats pulls together key strands of his practice and threads them through histories of British cybernetics experimental art and urban design For Willats a cluster of concepts about control and feedback within living and machine systems cybernetics offered a new means to make art relevant For decades Willats has built relationships through art with people in tower blocks underground clubs middle class enclaves and warehouses on the Isle of Dogs to investigate their current conditions and future possibilities Sharon Irish's study demonstrates the power of Willats's multi media art to catalyze communication among participants and to upend ideas about audience and art Here Irish argues that it is artists like Willats who are now the instigators of social transformation Sculpture Louis Slobodkin,1973-01-01 Offers advice on using tools and constructing armatures as well as shaping human figures portrait heads and bas reliefs from clay plaster wood stone and metal
