The South Seas Sean Brawley,Chris Dixon,2015-04-21 The South Seas charts the idea of the South Seas in popular cultural productions of the English speaking world from the beginnings of the Western enterprise in the Pacific until the eve of the Pacific War Building on the notion that the influences on the creation of a text and the ways in which its audience receives the text are essential for understanding the historical significance of particular productions Sean Brawley and Chris Dixon explore the ways in which authors and producers ideas about the South Seas were haunted by others who had written on the subject and how they in turn influenced future generations of knowledge producers The South Seas is unique in its examination of an array of cultural texts Along with the foundational literary texts that established and perpetuated the South Seas tradition in written form the authorsexplore diverse cultural forms such as art music theater film fairs platform speakers surfing culture and tourism Neither the Time nor the Place Christopher Castiglia,Susan Gillman,2022-05-17 The usefulness of time and place as defining categories would seem to be baked into the very notion of nineteenth century American literary studies yet they have challenged scholars practically since the field s inception In Neither the Time nor the Place seventeen critics consider how the space time dyad has both troubled and invigorated Americanist scholarship in recent decades and make explicit how time and place are best considered in tandem interrogating each other Taken together the essays challenge depictions of place and time as bounded and linear fixed and teleological or mere ideological constructions They address both familiar and unexpected objects practices and texts including a born digital Melville documents from the construction of the Panama Canal the hollow earth the desiring body textual editing marble statuary the sound of frogs spirit photography and twentieth century Civil War fiction The essays draw on an equally wide variety of critical methodologies integrating affect studies queer theory book history information studies sound studies environmental humanities new media studies and genre theory to explore the unexpected dimensions that emerge when time and place are taken as a unit The pieces are organized around considerations of citizenship environment historiography media and bodies five political cultural and or methodological foci for some of the most provocative new work being done in American literary studies Neither the Time nor the Place is a book not only for scholars and students already well grounded in the study of nineteenth century American literature and culture but for anyone scholar or student looking for a roadmap to some of the most vibrant work in the field Contributors Wai Chee Dimock Stephanie Foote Matthew Pratt Guterl Coleman Hutchison Rodrigo Lazo Caroline Levander Robert S Levine Christopher Looby Dana Luciano Timothy Marr Dana D Nelson Ifeoma C Kiddoe Nwankwo Mark Storey Matthew E Suazo and Edward Sugden The Coral Reef Era: From Discovery to Decline James Bowen,2015-01-06 On 4 June 1629 the Batavia pride of the Dutch East India Company Fleet was wrecked on her maiden voyage in a seemingly empty expanse of the Indian Ocean The question how did this happen led to 300 years of investigation by those curious to solve the enigma what are corals and how are coral reefs formed Relying heavily on primary

William Stimpson and the Golden Age of American Natural History Ronald Scott Vasile,2018-06-19 William Stimpson was at the forefront of the American natural history community in the latter half of the nineteenth century Stimpson displayed an early affinity for the sea and natural history and after completing an apprenticeship with famed naturalist Louis Agassiz he became one of the first professionally trained naturalists in the United States In 1852 twenty year old Stimpson was appointed naturalist of the United States North Pacific Exploring Expedition where he collected and classified hundreds of marine animals Upon his return he joined renowned naturalist Spencer F Baird at the Smithsonian Institution to create its department of invertebrate zoology He also founded and led the irreverent and fun loving Megatherium Club which included many notable naturalists In 1865 Stimpson focused on turning the Chicago Academy of Sciences into one of the largest and most important museums in the country Tragically the museum was destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 and Stimpson died of tuberculosis soon after before he could restore his scientific legacy This first ever biography of William Stimpson situates his work in the context of his time As one of few to collaborate with both Agassiz and Baird Stimpson s life provides insight into the men who shaped a generation of naturalists the last before intense specialization caused naturalists to give way to biologists Historians of science and general readers interested in biographies science and history will enjoy this compelling biography Tijdschrift voor zeegeschiedenis ,2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-12 Geography and Anthropology Harvard University.
