Sea Stories from Searsport to Singapore Lincoln Colcord, 1987 Sea Stories from Searsport to Singapore Lincoln Colcord, 1987 A native of Searsport Maine Colcord powerfully recreates nineteenth century life at sea at the height of the China trade Full of memorable characters and keen insights into the clash of East and West these great adventure yarns are timeless Sea-Brothers Bert Bender, 2015-11-16 Sea Brothers offers the most extensive analysis to date of the sea and its meaning in American literature On the basis of his study of Melville Crane London Hemingway Matthiessen and ten lesser known sea writers Bert Bender argues that the tradition of American sea fiction did not end with the opening of the western frontier and the replacement of sailing ships by steamers Rather he demonstrates its continuity and vitality identifying a central vision within the tradition and showing how particular authors draw from transform and contribute to it What is most distinctive about American sea fiction Bender contends is its visionary often mystical response to the biological world and to man's perceived place in the larger universe When Melville envisioned the sea as the essential element of life indeed as life itself he changed the course of American sea fiction by introducing the relevance of biological thought But his meditations on the whale and the ungraspable phantom of life project a different reality from that envisioned by his successors In American sea fiction after Melville the influence of Origin of Species is as powerful as that of Moby Dick or the theme of sailing ships being displaced by steam The ideal of brotherhood so central to American sea fiction was severely compromised by the biological reality of a competitive warring nature Twentieth century sea fiction has continued to center on the biological world and address the possibility of democratic brotherhood but the issues were fundamentally changed by Darwin's theories This book will be a valuable source for students and scholars of American literature and will interest readers of sea fiction

Fifty Five Years at Sea Monica Ruth Pattangall, 2016-01-28 Fifty Five Years at Sea is the story of the author's great great grandfather Captain William Sewall Nickels 1836-1920 For fifty five years he had no fixed address He was one of the hundreds of nineteenth century master mariners from Prospect now Searsport Maine Captain Nickels spent fifty five years of his life on merchant sailing vessels forty five of them as commander His wife followed him to sea and his daughters were raised on his ships In words and pictures it covers seven generations of Captain Nickels family from the time his great grandparents first settled on the shores of Penobscot Bay before the American Revolution It follows his early years on a farm in Prospect now Searsport Maine his fifty five years as a merchant mariner his retirement to Sailors Snug Harbor in Staten Island New York the fates of his children and grandchildren and the births of his great grandchildren in the years before his death It is a memorial to a simple man an uncelebrated mariner who lived long worked hard loved deeply and spent fifty five years at sea Folklore and the Sea Horace Palmer Beck, 1996 Horace Beck a former professor of American Literature at Middlebury College has been gathering the sea's folklore for 70 years in Europe North America and the West Indies This collection of legends songs superstitions and stories both true and apocryphal includes spectral ships mermaids and mermen
