Schultz,1995 The most continuously frequently and diversely illustrated of all American novels Moby Dick has attracted some remarkable book illustrators in Rockwell Kent Boardman Robinson Garrick Palmer Barry Moser and Bill Sienkiewicz among others represented here Rites and Passages Margaret S. Creighton,1995-08-25 This book contributes to what has recently been called a new social history of seafaring This new maritime history places sailors themselves at the center not the periphery of the maritime past and explores ways that the history of the sea and the history of the shore have intersected It differs from traditional accounts which celebrate exotic trades powerful merchants maritime technologies and military exploits Drawn on the evidence of nearly two hundred ship logs and sailors diaries Rites and Passages examines American whalers at the height of the whaling industry in the 1800s and argues that whaling life and culture was shaped by both the American mainland and by the exigencies of ocean life Unlike other published accounts of seafaring this work brings gender into the maritime equation not only with a discussion of the ways that women figured in this male world but also with an examination of the ways that seafaring served as a rite of passage into manhood Herman Melville John Bryant,2020-10-26 A comprehensive exploration of Melville s formative years providing a new biographical foundation for today s generations of Melville readers Herman Melville A Half Known Life Volumes 1 and 2 follows Herman Melville s life from early childhood to his astonishing emergence as a bestselling novelist with the publication of Typee in 1846. These volumes comprise the first half of a comprehensive biography on Melville grounded in archival research, new scholarship, and incisive critical readings. Author John Bryant, a distinguished Melville scholar, editor, critic, and educator, traces the events and experiences that shaped the many-stranded consciousness of one of literature's greatest writers. This in-depth and innovative biography covers Melville's family history and literary friendships; his father's longing for God, hunger, and search for the hidden nature of Being; the genesis of his liberal politics; his empathy for African Americans, Native Americans, Polynesians, South Americans, and immigrants. Original perspectives on Melville's earliest identities: orphaned son, sibling, farmer, teacher, debater, lover, actor, sailor, provide the context for Melville's evolution as a writer. The biography presents new information regarding Melville's reading, his early orations and acting experience, his life at sea and on the road, and the unsettling death of his older rival, brother from mercury poisoning. It provides insights on experiences such as Melville's trauma at the loss of his father, his learning to write amidst a coterie of siblings, his struggles to find work during economic depression, his journey West, his life in whaling and in the navy, and his vagabondage in the South Pacific during the moment of American and European imperial incursions. A significant addition to Melville scholarship, this important biographical work explores the nature and development of Melville's creative consciousness through the lens of his revisions in manuscript and print. Assesses Melville's sexual growth and exploration of the spectrum of his masculinities. Highlights Melville's relevance in contemporary democratic society. Discusses Melville's blending of dark humor and tragedy in his unique version of the picturesque. Examines the replaying of Melville's life traumas throughout his entire works, from Typee, Omoo, Redburn, White-Jacket, Moby-Dick, Pierre, Israel Potter, and The Confidence-Man to his shorter works, including Bartleby, his epic Clarel, his poetry, and his last novella, Billy Budd. Covers such cultural and historical events as the American revolution of his grandparents, the whaling industry, New York slavery, street life and theater in Manhattan, the transatlantic slave trade, the Jacksonian economy, Indian removal, Pacific colonialism, and westward expansion. Written in an engaging style for scholars and general readers alike.

Herman Melville: A Half-Known Life, Volumes 1 and 2 is an indispensable new source of information and insights for those interested in Melville, 19th-century and modern literature and culture, and readers of general American history and literary culture.

Film Quotations Robert A. Nowlan, Gwendolyn W. Nowlan, 2016-04-30. Certain lines define a movie: Marlene Dietrich in Morocco: "Anyone who has faith in me is a sucker." Too, there are lines that fit actor and character: Mae West in I'm No Angel: "I'm very quick in a slow way." Jane Fonda in California Suite: "Fit you think I look fit." What an awful shit you are. I look gorgeous. From the classics to the grade-B slasher movies, over 11,000 quotes are arranged by over 900 subjects like accidents, double entendres, eyes, and other body parts, ice cream, luggage, parasites, and ugliness. Each quote gives the movie title, production company, year of release, speaker of the line, and when appropriate, a comment putting the quote in context.
