Volume II of The Oxford History of the British Empire examines the history of British worldwide expansion from the Glorious Revolution of 1689 to the end of the Napoleonic Wars a crucial phase in the creation of the modern British Empire This is the age of General Wolfe Clive of India and Captain Cook An international team of experts deploy the latest scholarly research to trace and analyze development and expansion over more than a century They show how trade warfare and migration created an Empire at first overwhelmingly in the Americas but later increasingly in Asia Although the Empire was ruptured by the American Revolution it survived and grew into the British Empire that was to dominate the world during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Series Blurb The Oxford History of the British Empire is a major new assessment of the Empire in the light of recent scholarship and the progressive opening of historical records From the founding of colonies in North America and the West Indies in the seventeenth century to the reversion of Hong Kong to China at the end of the twentieth British imperialism was a catalyst for far reaching change The Oxford History of the British Empire as a comprehensive study allows us to understand the end of Empire in relation to its beginnings the meaning of British imperialism for the ruled as well as the rulers and the significance of the British Empire as a theme in world history Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee,1915 Attack on Maritime Trade Nicholas Tracy,1991-06-18 This text explores the motives for attacks on maritime trade over the last five centuries and assesses the strategic utility of that form of naval action The author has also written Navies Deterrence and American Independence Review of the Trade of India India. Office of the Economic Adviser,1915 Journal of the United Service Institution of India United Service Institution of India,1926 Statistics of British India ,1915 Seaborne Trade Charles Ernest Fayle,1920 Global Connections: Volume 2, Since 1500 John Coatsworth,Juan Cole,Michael P. more complex political and cultural systems With accelerating force climatic commercial and military stimuli joined to produce patterns of linear cum cyclic construction that became remarkably synchronized even between regions that had no contact with one another Yet this study also distinguishes between two zones of integration one where indigenous groups remained in control and a second where agency gravitated to external conquest elites Here then is a fundamentally original view of Eurasia during a 1 000 year period that speaks to both historians of individual regions and those interested in global trends

Review of the Trade of India in ... ,1917 China's Seaborne Trade with South and Southeast Asia \(1200-1750\) Roderich Ptak,2024-12-11 This second selection of studies by Professor Ptak focuses on Chinese maritime trade in the medieval and early modern periods The first section deals with contacts between China and individual places in particular Timor the Sulu Islands southern India and the islands of the Indian Ocean Chinese geographical and other accounts of these areas and the trade routes leading to them are examined and where possible compared with Arabic and Western works from the colonial period The second part looks at trade in specific commodities such as sandalwood coral horses tortoise shell ebony cloves and tea Relevant Chinese terms the uses of each commodity and the production and distribution are analysed Both qualitative and quantitative information is drawn from the sources and it is demonstrated that many trade items were much more significant in international business than has been thought At the same time these studies highlight the importance of Chinese consumption in driving world commodity flows
