National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins,2006-11-01 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century Jenkins book focuses on what made the subsequent literature essentially South African and what aspects of the country and its society authors concentrated on What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Another exceptional feature is that the book follows the author s previous work in placing children s literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history e g cinema He also makes enlightening comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children s literature      The Search-light ,1904      Search Graves for Ghosts Nan Tang,2019-12-13 I am a corpse sealer a profession known in the profession as the Ergonomist In this line of work there were corpses that were raped humiliated and frequently happened That day a plump and naked female corpse was brought to me      20 First Dates: How to Find the Perfect Man in 20 Dates Rebecca K Maddox,2012-02-01 Humorous accounts of the author s search for Mr Right with practical advice and encouragement for fellow seekers Rebecca K Maddox is 30 years old After many years as a single Christian woman she embarked on a dating experiment to go on twenty first dates with twenty men met in twenty different ways Over the course of a year Rebecca was almost compromised on the dance floor stranded in a muddy village and the catcher of a bouquet She sheltered under a cupcake box waited nervously in line for results and spent hours trawling profiles on the Internet She was driven in a rusty car with no floor and chased by an angry granny She narrowly escaped a squirting tiger and a falling pigeon attempted to eat a variety of foodstuffs while trying to look attractive and struggled in and out of her glad rags in the toilets of approximately ten trains to London She was confused amused frustrated and dazzled in equal measure This is the true story of one woman s determined search for the man of her dreams with plenty of practical advice on the world of Christian dating      The Yellow House; Master of Men E. Phillips Oppenheim,2021-04-26 In The Yellow House Master of Men E Phillips Oppenheim masterfully weaves a narrative rich in intrigue and suspense set against the backdrop of early 20th century societal norms and class dynamics The novel s intricate plot revolves around themes of ambition power and moral ambiguity employing a vivid and descriptive literary style that immerses the reader in the nuanced lives of its characters Oppenheim s adept use of dialogue and psychological depth provides insight into the motivations that drive individuals to success and the ethical dilemmas they must navigate reflecting the era s evolving views on wealth and status E Phillips Oppenheim known as the prince of storytellers garnered acclaim for his prolific contributions to the thriller genre His experiences as a writer during the tumultuous pre World War I period along with his keen observations of both the aristocracy and the emerging middle class likely informed the narrative in The Yellow House Master of Men Oppenheim's ability to create tension and moral conflict reflects his understanding of human nature and societal pressures making him a notable figure of his time For readers who appreciate literature that blends captivating storytelling with psychological insight The Yellow House Master of Men is a must read Oppenheim's compelling characterizations and suspenseful plot make it a timeless exploration of the human condition inviting reflection on the choices we make in the pursuit of our desires
