This book is a broad brush approach describing the realities of life in the American rabbinate. Factual portrayals are supplemented by examples drawn from fiction primarily novels and short stories. Chapters include Rabbinic Training, Congregational Rabbis and Their Communities, Congregants' Views of Their Rabbis, Women Rabbis, also including examples from TV and Cinema, Assimilation, Intermarriage, Patrilineality and Human Sexuality, God, Israel and Tradition. This book draws upon sociological data including the recent Pew Research Center survey on Jewish life in America and presents a contemporary view of rabbis and their communities. The realities of the American rabbinate are then compared contrasted with the ways fiction writers present their understanding of rabbinic life. The book explores illustrations from two hundred novels, short stories and TV cinema representing well over 135 authors. From the first real life women rabbis in the early 1970s to today's statistics of close to 1,600 women rabbis worldwide, major changes have taken place. Women rabbis are transforming the face of Judaism. For example, this newly revised second edition of American Rabbis: Facts and Fiction reflects a fivefold increase in terms of examples of fictional women rabbis from when the book was first published in 1998. There is new and expanded material on some of the challenges in the twenty-first century: women rabbis, human sexuality, LGBTQ matters, trans, post-non-denominational seminaries and community-based rabbis.

Where I Slept Libby Angel, 2023-05-30

When he asks what kind of work I do, I tell him I am a poet. Poetry will break your heart, he says. Or perhaps it is the only thing that won't. I say Where I Slept is the story of a young woman's devastating and inspirational search for a life of artistic integrity. Leaving a seedy boarding house in a provincial town in the 1990s, she travels to Melbourne to explore all the possibilities of the city. She lives in bohemian share houses with painters, activists, addicts and petty criminals, on the couches of friends and not so accommodating acquaintances and for a time in the streets, parks and railway stations of a city both richly gratifying and callously indifferent. Libby Angel's work of autofiction is an unforgettable portrait of a life on the fringes peppered with dark humour and moments of elation, a poem of longing and desire. Libby Angel is an Australian poet and novelist. She won the 2018 Barbara Jefferis Award for her debut novel The Trapeze Act. Her poetry has appeared in a number of Australian journals. Where I Slept, a work of autofiction, is her second novel.
