Searching For Faith Within A Confused Society:

In Search of a Confident Faith J. P. Moreland, Klaus Issler, 2008-07-30 Emphasizing that our trust in God will grow exponentially when we have come to understand the true nature of faith J P Moreland and Klaus Issler identify the intellectual emotional relational experiential and even theological barriers to mature faith Searching for Faith Within a Confused Society Dennis A. Anderson, 1976 The Search for Faith and Character in Our Time Jeff

Caples, 2025-09-10 There are many things we seek in life some are important and most are not This book gives insight into our search for faith and the character we develop when we pursue it Different qualities of faith and character are examined in detail Current events are discussed and analyzed from the viewpoint of faith in our time The reader is asked What do you believe in and is encouraged to find out Search for Faith and Justice in the Twentieth Century Gene James, 1987 In Search of the Republic Richard Vetterli, Gary Bryner, 1996 When In Search of the Republic was originally published in 1987 scholarly interpretations of the concept of virtue in the American founding were considered peripheral to mainstream political theory Since then the authors arguments that public virtue civic responsibility and private morality were at the heart of the Founding Fathers political thought is now accepted by a growing number of contemporary political theorists This revised edition includes a new preface that places In Search of the Republic within the context of contemporary debates over the role of virtue and religion in early American political discourse This is a superb introduction for students and scholars interested in learning about the moral political and constitutional theories of the Founding Fathers Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change

Understanding Seeking Faith: Society, history, and the political and philosophical uses of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1988 The Paradox of Holiness; Faith in Search of Obedience Donald G. Bloesch, 2022-05-03 Within these pages are the last two previously unpublished works from notable American evangelical theologian Donald G Bloesch In his spiritual autobiography Faith in Search of Obedience Bloesch describes the foundation upon which own theology is based namely a faith in search of obedience This honest and challenging work reveals and reminds how we are justified by faith alone but that faith drives us to obey and delight in God s law as we strive to perfect love through the Gospel of Jesus Christ The Paradox of Holiness presents the theology of spiritual life as it is shaped and defined by the Word of God Through this theological exposition Bloesch presents and explores the paradox that exists in the pursuit of holiness for those who believe For the theologian pastor or lay person who is seeking to combine Word and Spirit doctrine and life into an active theology this two in one volume by Donald Bloesch provides an honest and sober account of the challenges that may arise throughout the Christian pilgrimage while pointing toward the hope encouragement and new life that comes through the triumph of Christ on the cross

Confusing Faith Lemuel Manalon, As a result of extreme tolerance for every worldview and religious pluralism people including Christians often ignore or misapply Biblical standards in their daily life This comes down to the difference between belief about God and actually living by His design which can be disorienting to both believers and nonbelievers because of our overly saturated religious creeds CONFUSING FAITH presents well rounded perspectives and resolutions to some of the most common issues we face in overcoming this dilemma such as Christian clich s Unbelief as a default status Spiritual immaturity Our carnal hearts Misguided leadership and teachings The unending sin repent repeat cycle Misconceptions about faith Misapplication of some Biblical principles This book aims to remove sugar coating and make believing that are deeply rooted in the mainstream Christianity By iterating basic spiritual facts taken from the Bible Author Lemuel Manalon seeks to address these spiritual uncertainties for the purpose of mending and empowering the readers personal approach with God as the actual statement of faith

Biblical Strategies for a Community in Crisis Colleen Birchett, 1995-04 Through inspirational messages and warnings 11 leading Christian thinkers share with readers the major challenges facing the African American community and its church Readers are given biblical strategies for facing these challenges 12 lessons Leader s Guide also available

Misused R.K. Ayers, 2016-08-11 Using relatable stories from the authors 15 years of ministry experience Misused reveals the fact faith and truth to difficult statements and thoughts like God will never give you more than you can handle or God should make us happy if we ask for it The book also addresses hard topics such as why bad things happen to Gods people and tips for facing liars in your life The valuable concepts are brought to life in three primary sections How society uses feel good statements The biblical foundation of the statement What should be used instead Within these 3 categories readers are empowered to understand the concepts that truly encourage others with biblical truth and compassion Each chapter ends with questions for thought and discussion making this the perfect tool for an 8 week devotional small group study or personal growth tool

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Leadership in the Church for a People of Hope Mervyn Davies, Graham Dodds, 2011-05-19 An introduction to leadership in the church from a practical and theological point of view for existing practitioners lay people as well as those preparing for ministry

Articulations of Self and Politics in Activist Discourse Jan Zienkowski, 2016-10-27 This book focuses on the discursive processes that allow activists to make sense of themselves and of the modes of politics they engage in It shows how political and metadiscursive awareness develop in tandem with a reconfiguration of one's sense of self The author offers an integrated pragmatic and poststructuralist perspective on self and subjectivity He draws on Essex style discourse theory early pragmatist philosophy and linguistic pragmatics arguing for a notion of discourse as a multi dimensional practice of articulation Demonstrating the analytical power of this perspective he puts his approach to work in an analysis of activist discourse on integration and minority issues in Flanders Belgium Subjects articulate a whole range of norms values identities and narratives to each other when they engage in political discourse This book offers a way to analyse the logics that structure political awareness and the associated boundaries for discursive self interpretation

Finding Faith Today Bryan P. Stone, 2018-10-31 How do persons come to faith in our time Are they active seekers or brought in by others Is it a journey Or is it a more sudden conversion Are spouses relatives and friends most important to the process Do clergy matter What sorts of values practices and lifestyles tend to change for those who newly come to faith What are the differences among the various religious traditions in how one comes to faith This book presents the findings of a multi year study on how people come to faith in the US context It involves about 1 800 persons who recently made a new profession of faith or some other public commitment across various religious traditions in the US An initial study was conducted twenty five years ago on Christian populations in England by Bishop John Finney but surprisingly little research has been done since then Finding Faith Today is an expansion and follow up of that study The book sheds new light on how people come to faith and what sort of spiritual practical and social changes accompany that The book will be a help to those seeking to open up their communities of faith to others with hospitality and integrity Youth Ministry Sally Nash,2012-01-03 This book written by experts in the field explores the role of the youth minister by looking at a range of metaphors such as flawed hero visionary architect party planner and guardian of souls Each chapter takes one of these metaphors as a central theme offers biblical and or theological reflection on this aspect of youth ministry explains the relevant theory and the necessary skills uses real life stories from practitioners to bring the metaphor to life summarizes the key principles and values gives questions for reflection and makes suggestions for further reading Central and Eastern European Bible Commentary Corneliu Constantineanu,Peter Penner,2024-07-31 Available in the EU from Excelsis at <https://www.xl6.com/articles/9781783688227> central and eastern european bible commentary The Central and Eastern European Bible Commentary is a groundbreaking multi year work and the first full Bible commentary to come out of Central and Eastern Europe The aim of this resource is to provide a contemporary contextually relevant church based commentary written exclusively by biblical scholars from the region Rooted in scholarship while also written in clear and accessible language this commentary will appeal to Christians everywhere This resource will help pastors preachers teachers and lay leaders to interpret and apply biblical truths in the rapidly changing contexts of their lives and faith communities Features Central and Eastern European contextual theological applications of biblical teaching Over 100 articles addressing issues pertaining to our life as Christians in the twenty first century Clear accessible language which will appeal to Christians everywhere
