

Reincarnation

A silhouette of a Buddha statue is positioned on the left side of the image, facing right. The statue is set against a warm, golden-yellow background that resembles a sunset or sunrise sky. The lighting is soft and diffused, creating a serene and contemplative atmosphere. The Buddha's right hand is raised in a gesture, possibly the Varada mudra (boon-giving gesture), with the index finger pointing towards the text on the right.

"How many thoughts can a person entertain within one lifetime? Is it fathomable to think that a human being can fulfill every wish within the 70 or 80 years of their life? Would it not make more sense to have numerous lifetimes by which to carry out every desire? This is what many traditions call reincarnation."
