their own house just a short distance from her older brother and his family Together they work the farm and fell trees for lumber They plan to grow a dairy herd weave rugs out of their own wool and make skis to sell Everything is going right The only thing missing from Nilda s life is love But though she has two suitors a quiet schoolteacher and a handsome lumberjack Nilda feels hesitant A terrifying experience in Norway has made her cautious where men are concerned When she thinks she sees the man in question all her fears come flooding back Is it possible the danger has followed her across the Atlantic If Dreng Nygaard is truly in Minnesota all of her dreams for the future could come crashing down around her Hollywood and Catholic Women Kathryn Schleich,2012-03-23 In this second edition of her exploration of Catholic women in film and television author Kathryn Schleich presents an in depth feminist point of view while addressing important questions about the role of women in both the Church and Hollywood Throughout Schleichs extensive research she noticed that themes of fear mistrust and even hatred of women were prevalent While examining such deeply ingrained attitudes it soon became evident to Schleich that Catholic women still have a long way to go in Hollywood As she carefully explores the sexual tension between Sister Benedict and Father OMalley in The Bells of St Marys the brutal murder of Theresa Dunn in Looking for Mr Goodbar and the stereotype shattering Grace Hanadarko of Saving Grace Schleich offers an insightful portrayal of womens oppression within the Catholic Church and explores whether Catholic women are better off today This study encourages contemplation of the place of Catholic women within the ever changing spheres of cinema and television ultimately encouraging movement toward the goal of achieving equal status for women in all realms of life Petite's Romance M.
