Seasons Of Faith And Conscience Kairos Confession Liturgy:

Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie-Kellermann, 2008-11-07 Seasons of Faith and Conscience challenges religious activists and the wider church with an answer to the question What is the connection between faith and politics Every act of worship Kellermann says every occasion where the sovereignty of the word of God is acknowledged is always and everywhere expressly political In a profound biblical and theological reflection Kellermann begins by investigating the political implications of worship and liturgy both in the Hebrew Bible and in the New Testament He goes on to review the history of confessional politics those situations in which Christians have felt their historical situation to be so grave as to call into question the very identity of the church Recent examples include the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany and the Kairos document from South Africa Kellermann explores analogies in our own situation the continuing arms buildup the international debt system and the war against the poor in the Third World Seasons of Faith and Conscience concludes with a series of moving meditations on the key seasons and events of the liturgical calendar Advent Christmas Epiphany Lent Easter and Pentecost Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie Kellermann, Rhetoric and Kairos Phillip Sipiora, James S. Scripting Pentecost Mark J. Cartledge, A.J. Swoboda, 2016-07-07 Scripting Pentecost explores and develops an analysis of worship and liturgy in Pentecostal and Charismatic traditions Organized into three main sections history theology and contemporary practice the first section quarries the historical trajectories of classic Pentecostalism the Charismatic movement Third Wave and Oneness Pentecostalism Particular attention is given to the liturgical approaches of some of the earliest leaders including William J Seymour Alexander Boddy and Aimee Semple McPherson The second section constructive theology offers theological approaches to liturgical studies from Pentecostal and Charismatic perspectives In this section the Pentecostal and Charismatic tradition is advanced and extended by an interaction with ecumenical sources The third section case studies in contemporary worship theology and practice examines the actual performance of liturgy through selected global case studies chosen to reflect a diversity of ecclesial practice in Africa Asia Europe North America Latin America and Oceania

The Word on the Street Stanley P. Saunders, Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 WHAT HAPPENS WHEN TWO SEMINARY PROFESSORS LEAVE their classrooms and spend time among the homeless people and teach on city streets In this unique collection of essays and sermons Stanley P Saunders and Charles L Campbell reflect on their encounters with the homeless folks in Atlanta and seek to discern the way of Jesus on the streets of the city These passionate often moving writings demonstrate the power of Scripture to shape the way we see the world and they explore the significance of social location for exegesis ethics worship and preaching From the perspective of the street central Christian practices such as baptism Eucharist and preaching come to life in new ways Scripture takes on fresh meaning too while ancient insights into the principalities and powers the practice of scapegoating and the organization of households become contemporary and immediate Even theological themes grace and discipleship sin and forgiveness crucifixion and resurrection look different when taken to the street Accented by six powerful artworks from Christina Bray's exhibit Street Prayers Spiritual Journeys this book also sheds light on the problem of homelessness in America and calls the church to action Through their reflection on personal experiences and their interpretation of biblical texts Saunders and Campbell provide meaningful theological categories for addressing pressing social issues in the urban context making The Word on the Street a helpful resource on the realities of poverty race and injustice

Pilgrimage through a Burning World Ken Butigan, 2012-02-01 For two decades the Nevada Desert Experience has organized nonviolent action at the Nevada Test Site as part of the global movement to end nuclear testing Pilgrimage through a Burning World illuminates how the Franciscan based group has crafted a contemporary desert spirituality that integrates religious ritual and political action to grapple with the challenges of an institutionalized and internalized nuclear world Ken Butigan shows how the annual pilgrimage to the test site has contributed to the personal transformation of people on both sides of the fence at the test site and to the worldwide emergence of the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty

The Christian Year Robin Knowles Wallace, 2011 Through worship

we move learn encounter and celebrate in God's time In this concise introduction Dr Knowles Wallace gives practical worship and preaching suggestions for each season of the Christian year as it relates to the Revised Common Lectionary

Resources for Preaching and Worship - Year B Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2002-01-01 This is the first of a three volume lectionary resource that weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations meditations poems and prayers by classic and contemporary spiritual writers Each volume links with the lectionary readings for Sundays and for important festival days such as Christmas Easter and Pentecost Anyone who is concerned with preaching on Sunday or leading study groups or prayer groups during the course of the week can find here something to feed personal reflection to stimulate ideas for sermon themes and to provide stories and poems as well as prayers that in some way relate to the biblical readings for the day concerned

Servants and Fools Arthur Boers, 2015-10-20 Leadership is a much discussed topic What does it actually mean for us as Christians Does Christian leadership have its own distinctive shape and character In Servants and Fools A Biblical Theology of Leadership Arthur Boers examines Jesus's pattern of leadership Boers shows how this pattern is rooted in service and sacrifice is cautious about power and hierarchies and prioritizes the vulnerable In other words it often reverses what we expect of leadership and is different from what we read in most leadership literature Servants and Fools is a unique resource for students and practitioners across denominations It offers a foundational perspective on leadership and guidance for practical application in the reader's daily life and ministry Arthur Boers has at last written the book we have sorely needed a book that is destined to become the main text in my seminary courses in church leadership a book that is sure to be enthusiastically received by thousands of contemporary Christian leaders Boers energetically underscores the joyful peculiarity of specifically Christian leadership His book is unique a biblically based Christologically grounded defense of leadership in the name of Christ Will Willimon Professor of the Practice of Christian Ministry Duke Divinity School United Methodist Bishop retired and author of Pastor Theology and Practice of Ordained Leadership Servants and Fools is a brilliant and essential contribution to any serious study of leadership Robust faithful insightful biblical teaching A judicious knowledgeable harvest of the best contributions from leadership theorists and practitioners Plus humor in the trenches experiences and practical applications I cannot imagine ever teaching another class on leadership without assigning and discussing Arthur Boers's book David W Gill Mockler Phillips Professor of Workplace Theology Ethics Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary In Servants and Fools A Biblical Theology of Leadership Arthur Boers deconstructs the contemporary cult of leadership and serves up a refreshingly Biblical alternative It is a great cautionary tale for today's churches seminaries and Christian non profits At the same time it offers great insight for secular organizations and leaders as well John Suk author former editor of The Banner and pastor of Lawrence Park Community Church Toronto Canada One of Hearts Minds Bookstore's BEST BOOKS OF 2015

Ambassadors of Reconciliation: New Testament reflections on restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Both Ched Myers and Elaine Enns work for Bartimaeus Ministries in California Myers the author of Binding the Strong Man and Who Will Roll Away the Stone focuses on building biblical literary church renewal and faith based witness for justice Enns has worked for twenty years in the field of restorative justice and conflict transformation Book jacket The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task

Evangelism after Pluralism Bryan Stone, 2018-05-01 What does it mean to evangelize ethically in a multicultural climate Following his successful Evangelism after Christendom Bryan Stone addresses reasons evangelism often fails and explains how it can become distorted as a Christian practice Stone urges us to consider a new approach arguing for evangelism as a work of imagination and a witness to beauty rather than a crass effort to compete for converts in pluralistic contexts He shows that the way we lead our lives as Christians is the most meaningful tool of evangelism in today's rapidly changing world From Fast to Feast Cas Wepener, 2009 Today some years after the first democratic elections in South Africa as well as the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC it is clear that reconciliation is still needed on all terrains of South African society More and more people are becoming aware of unchanneled emotions such as guilt fury revenge and grief which are still alive in South Africa and which come to fore in different ways It seems as if reconciliation is a process that will in fact take years if not generations The task of the TRC has been completed but the task of reconciliation on all levels in South African society and the debate surrounding it are far from complete Very little research has been conducted to understand both the process and the kinds of reconciliation rituals that are needed And this is exactly the aim of the research described in this book The research described here aims at making a contribution towards the process of reconciliation in South Africa by specifically looking at one small but important element in that process namely ritual To this end several ritual probes were conducted including an ethnographic probe describing research by means of participatory observation in local South African communities as well as a cultural anthropological biblical historical and descriptive probe From these probes ritual qualities were distilled which can be used for the liturgical inculturation of rituals of reconciliation in South Africa Who Will Roll Away the Stone? Ched Myers, 1994 The author of the critically acclaimed Binding the Strong Man exposes the social and spiritual stones that impede us in our development and growth as Christians In every age writes Myers disciples despair that the story has ended only to discover that the stone has been rolled away reopening the possibility and imperative of following the Way of Jesus As a sequel to Binding the Strong Man Who Will Roll Away the Stone brings Myers study of the gospel of Mark full circle The first book provided a compelling reading of Mark's gospel as a manual of radical discipleship in the ancient Roman empire Who Will Roll Away the Stone picks up and extends the gospel's challenge specifically to those living in the contemporary imperial context Each chapter opens with classic questions from within the gospel itself Beginning with Peter's denial of Jesus Who Will Roll Away the Stone shows how and why first world Christians politically free socially mobile and resource rich seem typically unable or unwilling to struggle for social change Myers uses three of the most troubling and problematic of recent events the Los Angeles riots the Gulf War the Columbus quincentennial to demonstrate how the subtle complexities of a culture of technological wizardry information overload and short term memory can be recognized as blocking the first step on the journey of discipleship Myers then turns to the second stage of discipleship which is conversion literally a call to change direction both as individuals and as a society He continues with a deconstruction of the modus vivendi of U S culture using experiments in other ways of living including social relocation and nonviolent politics He then moves into the third stage of the call to discipleship to reconstruct the church and the world through positive action building solidarity with one another and with the poor accepting and celebrating diversity and its gifts and reclaiming the discourse of the reign of God from those who use it to defend the status quo

The War on Terrorism and the Terror of God Lee Griffith, 2004 Uniquely relevant in a world shaken by recent acts of terror this title calls people of faith to the way of peace the Christian response to evil and violence

Ambassadors of Reconciliation: Diverse Christian practices of restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Restorative justice refers to a social movement that seeks to repair interpersonal communal and social injustices without recourse to violence or retribution Volume two analyzes the contemporary terrain of restorative justice and peacemaking in North America and profiles the exemplary work of nine practitioners who incarnate the scriptural vision in real life contexts of profound violence and injustice

With Ever Joyful Hearts J. Neil Alexander, Marion J. Hatchett, 1999 The occasion of Dr Hatchett's thirtieth anniversary as professor of liturgics and church music at the School of Theology of the University of the South is being celebrated with this stimulating collection of essays by an international cadre of authors

Currents in the Interpretation of Paul Neil Elliott, 2024-09-05 The apostle Paul has long been championed or criticized as a Christian thinker as a brilliant theological genius or an enthusiastic convert who spun arguments to justify his new allegiances In these essays Neil Elliott engages some of the most provocative currents in contemporary scholarship including Paul and the nature of violence the presumptions of religious cultural or national innocence in particular interpretations of the apostle the recent enthusiasm for Paul in some streams of Marxist thought competing construals of economic realities in Paul's day and our own and questions surrounding Paul's legacy today
