Plunging into the Kingdom Way Tim Dickau, 2011-01-01 What practices might a community of faith take up that will bear witness to the alternative world Jesus envisions and calls us towards That is the question that Grandview Calvary Baptist Church an initially small and fragile group of Christ followers has kept asking over the last twenty years Along the way this small group has spawned a vibrant community of faith that has traveled along four trajectories towards a shared life in community radical hospitality justice for the least and confession leading to transformation In a culture where individualism consumerism injustice and autonomy shape us all these practices have re shaped not only the people of this church but also the neighborhood they inhabit in the East side of Vancouver British Columbia For anyone wanting to recover ancient but newly shaped practices of the first disciples Plunging into the Kingdom Way offers renewed hope By relating their story in conversation with a host of theologians sociologists and philosophers Tim Dickau sparks the imagination for how you and your friends your community or your church can live out the radical vision of Jesus in your neighborhood today Plunge in and you will discover renewed hope that you can actually follow the way of Jesus

today     Studies in the Book of Psalms William Swan Plumer, 1866 The Psalms are wonderful They have been read repeated chanted sung studied wept over rejoiced in expounded loved and praised by God's people for thousands of years The most ancient of these productions is now 1866 three thousand three hundred and twenty six years old The least ancient of them is two thousand four hundred and fifty three years old The difference in date between the most ancient and the most modern of them is eight hundred and seventy three years They were all written in Asia so that we in this Western world can have no national pride respecting them Yet pious people here and all over the earth have found and can find no compositions more suitable for delineating their devout emotions and for expressing their pious sensibilities than those of inspired Psalmists If to any man these songs are unsavory the reason is found in the blindness and depravity of the human heart Hengstenberg The Psalms are expressions of holy feeling which can be understood by those only who have become alive to such feeling Other things being equal he who has the most heavenly mind will be the most successful student of the Psalms
