Seattles Black Victorians 1852 1901:

Seattle's Black Victorians, 1852-1901 Esther Hall Mumford, 1980 looks at black life in 19th century Seattle from many angles The combination of newspaper files county records and oral history gives a density to the historical picture John Berry Seattle Sun Back cover The Forging of a Black Community Quintard Taylor, 2022-06-07 Seattle s first black resident was a sailor named Manuel Lopes who arrived in 1858 and became the small community s first barber He left in the early 1870s to seek economic prosperity elsewhere but as Seattle transformed from a stopover town to a full fledged city African Americans began to stay and build a community By the early twentieth century black life in Seattle coalesced in the Central District a four square mile section east of downtown Black Seattle however was never a monolith Through world wars economic booms and busts and the civil rights movement black residents and leaders negotiated intragroup conflicts and had varied approaches to challenging racial inequity Despite these differences they nurtured a distinct African American culture and black urban community ethos With a new foreword and afterword this second edition of The Forging of a Black Community is essential to understanding the history and present of the largest black community in the Pacific Northwest

African American Women Confront the West, 1600-2000 Quintard Taylor, Shirley Ann Wilson Moore, 2008-08-01 Reconstructs the history of black women s participation in western settlement A stellar collection of essays by talented authors who explore fascinating topics Journal of American Ethnic History African American Women Confront the West 1600 2000 is the first major historical anthology on the topic The editors argue that African American women in the West played active though sometimes unacknowledged roles in shaping the political ideological and social currents that have influenced the United States over the past three centuries Contributors to this volume explore African American women s life experiences in the West their influences on the experiences of the region s diverse peoples and their legacy in rural and urban communities from Montana to Texas and from California to Kansas The essayists explore what it has meant to be an African American woman from the era of Spanish colonial rule in eighteenth century New Mexico to the black power era of the 1960s and 1970s The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America

Trailblazing Black Women of Washington State Marilyn Morgan, 2022 Breaking glass ceilings organizing clubs and making history as the first in their fields these trailblazing Black women paved the way for new generations From Nettie Craig Asberry founder of the Tacoma NAACP to Dr Dolores Silas now honored by a school bearing her name these women forged a path amid adversity Black women were crucial to the war effort working as Rosies at Boeing during World War II and in the post war years Seattle musicians like Edyth Turnham and Her Knights of Syncopation were in high demand These teachers scientists and politicians served on boards led protests and fought for civil rights across the state Join author and historian Marilyn Morgan as she chronicles the incredible lives and contributions of Washington's Black women Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Hinson Pieroth, 2012 In Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Pieroth describes the contributions of a remarkable group of women who dominated the Seattle public school system in the early years of the twentieth century and helped to produce well educated citizens who were responsible for the widespread philanthropic volunteer and municipal activities that came to characterize the city While most publications on the history of education have emphasized theory or administration Pieroth focuses on individual teachers Set against the backdrop of a developing city the book provides vivid portraits of educated strong ambitious women making successful careers at a time when job opportunities for women were very limited Pieroth interviewed as many of these women as she could find and quotes from the interviews enhance her lively well written narrative Using details drawn from local newspapers and school publications she demonstrates that the influence of this cohort of women made modern Seattle the livable place that it remains today Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years is a significant contribution to the history of Seattle and the region to women's history and to the history of education A Home for Every Child Patricia Susan Hart, 2011-05-01

Adoption has been a politically charged subject since the Progressive Era when it first became an established part of child welfare reform In A Home for Every Child Patricia Susan Hart looks at how when and why modern adoption practices became a part of child welfare policy The Washington Children's Home Society now the Children's Home Society of Washington was founded in 1896 to place children into adoptive and foster homes as a means of dealing with child abuse neglect and homelessness Hart reveals why birth parents relinquished their children to the Society how adoptive parents embraced these vulnerable family members and how the children adjusted to their new homes among strangers Debates about nature versus nurture fears about immigration and anxieties about race and class informed child welfare policy during the Progressive Era Hart sheds new light on that period of time and the social cultural and political factors that affected adopted children their parents and administrators of pioneering institutions like the Washington Children's Home Society
