The End of College Football Nathan Kalman-Lamb,Derek Silva,2024-10-04 In this book Nathan Kalman Lamb and Derek Silva offer an existential challenge to one of America s favorite pastimes college football Drawing on twenty five in depth interviews with former players from some of the country s most prominent college football teams Kalman Lamb and Silva explore how football is both predicated on a foundation of coercion and suffused with racialized harm and exploitation Through the stories of those who lived it the authors examine the ways in which college football must be understood as a site of harm revealing how players are systematically denied the economic value they produce for universities and offered only a devalued education in return By illuminating the plantation dynamics that make college football a particularly racialized form of exploitation the book makes legible the forms of physical sacrifice that are required the ultimate cost in health and well being and the coercion that drives players into the sport and compels them to endure such abusive conditions

A Different College Experience Brian Mills,Ben Trueblood,2019-01-15 For many the college experience is defined by drinking sex impulsive decision making and a journey of self discovery It s packaged as a consequence free zone to have the best time of your life But the reality is that what happens in college doesn t stay in college There are real lasting consequences to your decisions Student ministry leaders Ben Trueblood and Brian Mills have seen this firsthand With decades of student ministry leadership under their belts they have seen too many lives fall apart because of the world s view of what the college experience should be You don t have to have that kind of college experience Fortunately just as the gospel redeems all of life the gospel redeems the college experience It tells us there is another way In this book Ben and Brian provide a biblical and practical guide for how you can have a fun joy filled and spiritually enriching college experience while avoiding the pitfalls that have captured so many before you

McClure's Magazine ,1908      Campus Counterspaces Micere Keels,2020-01-15 Frustrated with the flood of news articles and opinion pieces that were skeptical of minority students imagined campus microaggressions Micere Keels a professor of comparative human development set out to provide a detailed account of how racial ethnic identity structures Black and Latinx students college transition experiences Tracking a cohort of more than five hundred Black and Latinx students since they enrolled at five historically white colleges and universities in the fall of 2013 Campus Counterspaces finds that these students were not asking to be protected from new ideas Instead they relished exposure to new ideas wanted to be intellectually challenged and wanted to grow However Keels argues they were asking for access to counterspaces safe spaces that enable radical growth They wanted counterspaces where they could go beyond basic conversations about whether racism and discrimination still exist They wanted time in counterspaces with likeminded others where they could simultaneously validate and challenge stereotypical representations of their marginalized identities and develop new counter narratives of those identities In this critique of how universities have responded to the challenges these students face Keels offers a way forward that goes beyond making diversity statements to taking diversity actions      Popular Mechanics Magazine ,1919
