Sabbatical in France: Adding a Second Life Tom Cardwell, 2019-04-29 France The daydream is to live there not as a tourist but as one of its people To immerse yourself in the culture the stories the history To become a local and participate in local life But you hesitate to quit your job leave your friends and family Yet the daydream will not go away Then an opportunity arises to buy not a house but a share of a house in a place where you can go to every year and participate in the local life of a village in northern France What would it actually be like to be there What experiences would you have Could you do it Would you do it How would your life be different if you did A couple asks these questions and finds themselves in a rural agricultural village they had never heard of where they knew no one in a place even the French asked Where is that There they found a circus school and a Knights Templar commanderie took long afternoon picnics and discovered a way of living now lost to us in our age of electronic screens twenty four hour news cycles and instant everything Orphans of the Republic Olivier Wieviorka,2009 On July 10 1940 by a 570 to 80 margin the representatives in the French parliament voted full powers to Philippe Pétain ending the Third Republic and paving the way for the collaborationist Vichy regime Olivier Wieviorka offers a nuanced portrait of the individuals who determined the fate of France at this critical moment Pétain claimed to be saving France from ruin The day of the vote has been described as a journey of dupes the legislators so ignorant or fearful that they voted without a thought to the consequences But Wieviorka shows that most of the deputies made a considered decision to vote for Pétain He analyzes the factors such as political culture and regional origins that motivated the voting on both sides and traces the men's fates through the war Recreating the tense atmosphere of summer 1940 Wieviorka shows how pressures brought on by defeat could affect even the most hardened republicans He illuminates the complex moral issues inherent in accommodation and collaboration in a time of crisis
