Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura Moss, 2009-08-01 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion

Thermodynamic Properties of Nitrogen Viacheslav Vladimirovich Sychev, 1987 Haiti and the Americas Carla Calargé, Raphael Dalleo, Luis Duno-Gottberg, Clevis Headley, 2013-04-23 Haiti has long played a significant role in global perception of the western hemisphere but ideas about Haiti often appear paradoxical Is it a land of tyranny and oppression or a beacon of freedom as site of the world's only successful slave revolution A bastion of devilish practices or a devoutly religious island Does its status as the second independent nation in the hemisphere give it special lessons to teach about postcolonialism or is its main lesson one of failure Haiti and the Americas brings together an interdisciplinary group of essays to examine the influence of Haiti throughout the hemisphere to contextualize the ways that Haiti has been represented over time and to look at Haiti's own cultural expressions in order to think about alternative ways of imagining its culture and history Thinking about Haiti requires breaking through a thick layer of stereotypes Haiti is often portrayed as the region's nadir of poverty of political dysfunction and of savagery Contemporary media coverage fits very easily into the narrative of Haiti as a dependent nation unable to govern or even fend for itself a site of lawlessness that's in need of more powerful neighbors to take control Essayists in Haiti and the Americas present a fuller picture developing approaches that can account for the complexity of Haitian history and culture

Convergences and Interferences, 2016-09-12 How does one imagine plurality How does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony How does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time This bilingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multilingual and multicultural dialogue In this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences The collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives This volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis Ecrits d'Haïti, 2011 La littérature haïtienne occupe une grande place sur la scène internationale Les auteurs haïtiens sont lus sur tous les continents Ils participent des rencontres en Martinique Paris et New York En même temps Haïti accueille de plus en plus decrivains étrangers ainsi que des manifestations littéraires Mais en règle générale ces activités littéraires impliquent toujours la présence d'auteurs publiant principalement l'étranger De retour en Haïti après ses études aux États-Unis Nadève Mard se rend compte que ses étudiants lisent surtout les écrivains vivant et publiant principalement en Haïti Entre les deux littératures la différence n'est pas seulement au niveau des auteurs et des livres considérés mais aussi des thèmes La critique étrangère considère l'exil comme le thème dominant la littérature haïtienne alors qu'en Haïti même ce sont des thèmes universels qui sont évoqués et discutés comme la violence l'amour la sexualité la ville C'est cette littérature que le présent ouvrage expose dans sa diversité en s'arrêtant sur les années 1986-2006 la première date ayant représenté un tournant majeur dans la société haïtienne L'objectif de ce livre est ainsi de donner une large perspective de la littérature haïtienne contemporaine et d'y inclure autant decrivains que possible M'après le séisme du 12 janvier 2010 la littérature haïtienne comme le pays continue de vivre Mythologies américaines Dany

The Zombie in Contemporary French Caribbean Fiction Lucy Swanson, 2023-02-15 Believed to have emerged in the French Caribbean based on African spirit beliefs the zombie represents not merely the walking dead but also a walking embodiment of the region's history and culture In Haiti today the zombie serves as an enduring memory of enslavement it is defined as a reanimated body robbed of part of its soul forced to work in sugarcane fields In Martinique and Guadeloupe the zombie takes the form of a shape-shifting evil spirit and represents the dangers posed to the maroon or freedom runner The Zombie in Contemporary French Caribbean Fiction is the first book-length study of the literary zombie in recent fiction from the region It examines how this symbol of the enslaved and of the evil spirits that threaten them is used to represent and critique new socio-political situations in the Caribbean It also offers a comprehensive and focused examination of the ways contemporary authors from Haiti and the French Antilles contribute to the global zombie imaginary identifying four avatars of the zombie the slave the trauma victim the horde and the popular zombie that appear frequently in fiction and anthropology exploring how works by celebrated and popular authors reimagine these archetypes

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including André Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M. Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora reviennent comme Fanfan double de l'auteur adolescent qu'on avait déjà croisé dans Le Goût des jeunes filles. Mais ce qui crée l'unité profonde du livre, c'est le thème. Dans toutes les histoires, on retrouve un attrait vers le Sud, c'est-à-dire Haïti et ses corps noirs. Attrait souvent inexprimé et d'autant plus fort. Le propriétaire d'un café de Brooklyn s'installe à Port-au-Prince et y embauche des gigolos pour séduire sa cliente française. Une Américaine loue une maison bleue qui ressemble à une peinture naïve, elle va faire de troublantes découvertes. La fille d'un maître séduit un esclave. Un roman sensuel troublant sur l'attraction des chairs.

Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo, 2019-05-06. In Experiments with Empire, Justin Izzo examines how twentieth-century writers, artists, and anthropologists from France, West Africa, and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world. Focusing on novels, films, and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought, Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire's political and epistemological boundaries. In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch, Malian writer Amadou Hampât Bamba, Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau, and others, anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples; its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation. It also, Izzo contends, helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures.

Écrire en pays assiégé - Haïti - Writing under Siege

, 2021-10-18. Jacques Stephen Alexis, Jacques Roumain, René Depestre, Marie Chauvet, Frank J. Tienne, J. J. Dominique, Jean M. Tellus, Dany Laferrière, Yanick Lahens, Lionel Trouillot, and Edwidge Danticat are some of the Haitian writers whose writing is marked by Haiti's political history. Successive dictatorships have indeed shaped Haiti's creative space, imposing constraints that the authors ingeniously counteract and against which they all react. This collection of essays and interviews illustrates and analyzes the various ways in which the fictional, poetic, and theatrical texts transcend the forces of oppression through linguistic and formal strategies.

Tout bouge autour de moi Dany Laferrière, 2011-01-05. Le 12 janvier 2010, Dany Laferrière se trouvait à Port-au-Prince. Un après-midi, il a vu, sans pathos, sans lyrisme, des choses vues qui disent l'horreur, mais aussi le sang-froid des Haïtiens. Que reste-t-il quand tout tombe, la culture, l'énergie d'une forêt de gens remarquables.
